

President to Wage Strong Campaign This Year for Peace

Does Not Intend to Wait Until After Fall Elections

BY FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson is said to favor an unrelenting peace offensive in 1964.

A White House source reported that Johnson is determined to seek new breakthroughs on peace and does not think the United States can or should wait until after the November presidential balloting before pressing ahead in this area.

The source made available to newsmen Wednesday a summary of what was described as Johnson's views on a broad range of topics. Some of the material was provided on condition it not be made public until today.

Housing Program

Among key attitudes attributed to Johnson were these: The President plans to propose a comprehensive housing program and will discuss this today at his ranch home with Administrator Robert C. Weaver of the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Johnson expects Congress to pass a civil rights bill this year, as well as an $11 billion tax cut. He also would like to see passage of a program to provide medical insurance for the elderly.

Government officials will be expected to work hard and avoid the cocktail party circuit. Johnson is pleased with the results of his economy-in-government drive and believes the stage is set for further savings in the budget that will go to Congress in January 1965. He believes fiscal prudence is, in the informant's words, "no longer a rich man's issue."

Message to Khrushchev

The President has profound respect for Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and also is greatly impressed by Gen. Maxwell Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Earlier Wednesday Johnson told Soviet Premier Khrushchev in a message that the time for talking peace has passed and "1964 should be a year in which we take further steps toward that goal."

"In this spirit I shall strive for the further improvement of relations between our two countries," Johnson said in a reply to a New Year's message from Khrushchev and Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev.

The two Russian leaders had said in their personal message to Johnson that the old year saw "a significant improvement in the approach to the solutions of urgent international problems and in the development of Soviet-American relations."

They voiced hope that the new year "will be marked by further significant success."

Greek Cypriots Oppose Special Role for Turks

Island's President Attempts to Put End to Agreements

BY ALEX EFTY

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Archbishop Makarios, Greek Cypriot president of Cyprus, has begun a campaign to end Turkey's special role in Cyprus, granted by the island's 1960 independence treaties.

Charging Turkey with "aggressive actions" in the communal strife between Greek and Turkish Cypriots, Makarios announced Wednesday night he would seek to dissolve agreements under which Britain, Greece and Turkey guarantee Cyprus' sovereignty.

Angered By Turkey

The treaties with all three governments are interlocked, and all three must be abrogated to get rid of the agreement with Turkey. But Makarios and other members of his government have made plain the Turkish government is the object of their ire.

The action came amid fresh bloodshed on the 12th day since strife between the island's Greek majority and Turkish minority turned violent. Three monks were killed and another three wounded in a raid Wednesday on a Greek Orthodox monastery 25 miles southwest of Nicosia. Survivors said five or six Turkish Cypriots made the raid.

Britain, now acting as peace-maker and policeman for its former colony, feared new reprisals by Turkish Cypriots if Makarios upsets the delicately arranged treaties without consultation with all sides.

In Turkey's capital, Ankara, a Foreign Ministry spokesman said his government stood by the treaties and promised "we will take every measure for their literal application."

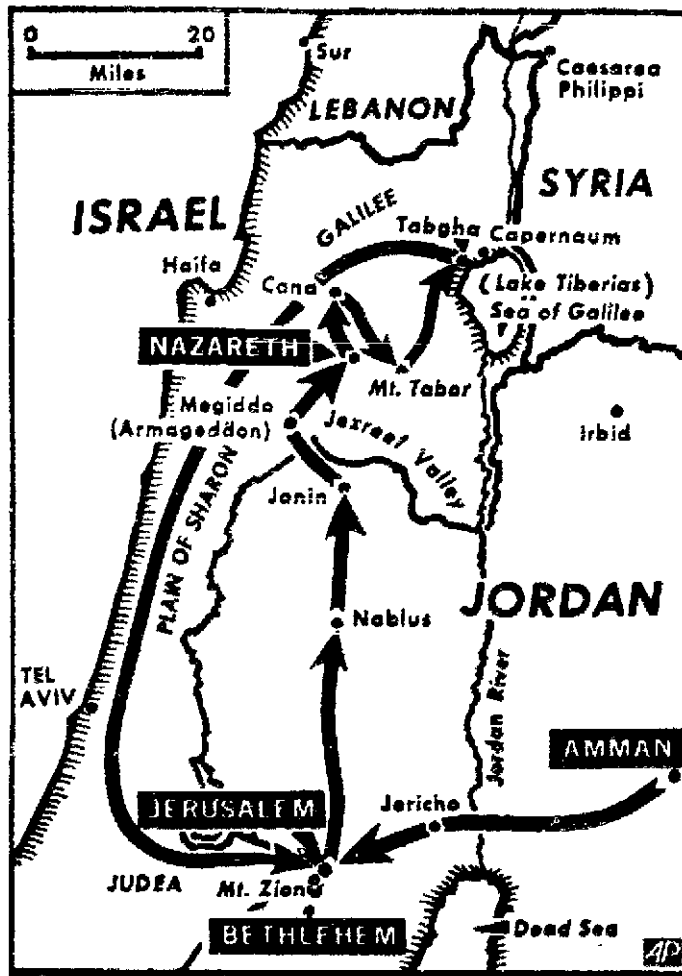

Effort Seen to Steal Documents Involved In Swedish Spy Case

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Security police are investigating an attempt to burglarize the safe of the lawyer defending air force Col. Stig Wennerstrom, charged with espionage for the Soviet Union.

The intruders reportedly entered the lawyer's office during the Christmas holidays and tried without success to open the safe, in which documents on the Wennerstrom case were kept.

Wennerstrom was arrested last summer and police say he has admitted working for the Russians during World War II. He is being held at Stockholm police headquarters.

Plans Completed for Pope's Holy Land Visit

BY BENNET M. EOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP)—A Vatican Christian unity expert was added today to the official party that will accompany Pope Paul VI on his Holy Land pilgrimage.

The addition of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Jan J. Willebrands, Dutch-born secretary of the Vatican's Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity, followed agreement by the Pope and Orthodox Patriarch Athenagoras I of Constantinople (Istanbul) to meet during the pilgrimage.

Vatican officials said there would be no formal announcement here about the meeting of the Pope with Patriarch Athenagoras—the first encounter between a Roman Catholic pontiff and an Orthodox patriarch in five centuries.

The Italian government planned a big send-off for the Roman Catholic pontiff as the head of the tiny Vatican state.

A squadron of Italian air force F84 jet fighters was assigned to escort the Pope's special Alitalia Airlines jetliner in international waters. The military planes also will greet the Pope's return flight from Jordan and Israel Monday.

Romans who attended New Year's Day masses at churches along the papal route to the airport were told the time to gather to cheer the pontiff on his way.

Church Bells to Ring

Bells in Rome's 450 churches will peal at the moment of take-off.

Pope Paul was in the midst of a 3-day period of intensified prayer to prepare for his historic trip.

An afternoon spiritual retreat, or period of withdrawal from normal routine to pray and meditate, was scheduled in a Vatican chapel for the three cardinals and 30 other Vatican aides who will accompany the pontiff.

The Pope, in an appearance before a New Year's Day crowd of 30,000 in St. Peter's Square, said his trip "may have an impact for many years to come."

Nation's Toll For Holiday Tops Estimate

Fatalities Stay Below Those For Christmas Period

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Holiday traffic killed 223 Americans during the 48 hours of New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.

Delayed reports from states were expected to increase the death count which safety experts said was greater than anticipated.

48-Hour Toll

The two holidays were tabulated for the first time on a 48-hour basis. Because a 30-hour period formerly was used, no comparable fatality counts were available for comparison.

The New Year's toll compared with an average of 117 traffic deaths a day during the first 11 months of 1963. But it was much greater than the latest available seasonal average for a December Tuesday, 95, and a January Wednesday, 68—a combined toll of 163.

Council's Estimate

The National Safety Council had estimated in advance of the holiday that between 140 and 180 persons might be killed in traffic mishaps from 6 p.m. New Year's Eve to midnight Wednesday—a 30-hour period. Council President Howard Pyle said Wednesday night that the final figures "definitely will be beyond this estimate."

The Associated Press count showed that nearly 200 traffic fatalities were reported during the 30-hour period defined by the council.

There were 316 highway deaths during last week's 48-hour Christmas holiday while 382 persons died in traffic accidents during the 1963-64 New Year's weekend holiday of four days.

The holiday traffic death toll compared to a total of 170 fatalities reported in an Associated Press survey for a nonholiday period of 48 hours, from 12:01 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 10 to 12:01 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 12.

3 Die in Fire at Nursing Home

COLUMBIA, Miss. (AP)—Fire swept a nursing home in this small south Mississippi town early today, killing three of the 17 occupants.

The blaze destroyed the one-story frame building.

An employee of the home, Mrs. Boyd Hamm, said she believed the fire started from a floor furnace.

None of the survivors was reported injured.

Sixteen of the occupants were men, most of them veterans of World War I.

Cuba Celebrates 5th Anniversary of Batista Overthrow

Thousands of Cubans are expected to watch the display of tanks, artillery and ground-to-air missiles.

Castro planned a major policy speech, probably pegged to his government's theme that 1964 is "the year of the economy," an all-out battle to increase production.

Reads See Review

Visiting Communist delegates from Europe, Asia and Latin America were to join Castro on the parade reviewing stand. The Soviet delegation is led by Nikolai Podgorny, a secretary of the Soviet Communist party and a member of its Presidium.

In a new year's greeting to Castro, Soviet Premier Khrushchev and President Leonid Brezhnev promised: "We again declare that revolutionary Cuba will not remain alone if it is attacked by United States aggressive military circles."

Castro said Wednesday night he believed President Kennedy was "beginning to think of the possibilities of normalization of relations" between the United States and Cuba before he was assassinated Nov. 22.

In a Havana-to-New York telephone interview with ABC he said he wanted to normalize Cuba's relations with the United States but "it belongs to the United States government to take the next step to help that normalization."

"But of course, it can never be over conditions of renouncing our political ideas," Castro said. "Never can we renounce our marxism."

Gear Crippled But Jet Lands

BOSTON (AP)—A Convair 440 jet, carrying 71 persons and crippled by a collapsed landing gear, skidded on a runway, spun around and came to rest on a wingtip Wednesday night.

None of the 63 passengers and eight crewmen was injured. A Trans World Airlines spokesman said damage to the plane was minor.

Good Day Today; Better Day Friday

Fox Cities—Partly cloudy, continued mild tonight and Friday. Low tonight near 28. High Friday near 35. Moderate westerly winds.

Appleton—Observations at 10 a.m. today. Temperatures for the 24-hour period: High 28; low 20. Wind velocity: 3 mph southwest. Barometer: 29.15 and rising. Relative humidity: 65 per cent. Dew point: 19 degrees. Temperature: 28. Precipitation: none; heavy white frost: three inches of snow on the ground.

Sun sets today at 4:25 p.m., rises Friday at 7:30 a.m. Moon rises tonight at 8:18 p.m. The earth is now at the point in its orbit nearest to the sun.

Security Check Provided

Classified Files to be Available to Scholars

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon has issued a new standard rule under which needless embarrassment, official defense information may be opened to "trustworthy" scholars and others engaged in historical research, it was learned today.

The rule, in effect, requires such private citizens to pass the same kind of a security check as is given to civilian workers for the Defense Department.

This means a search of their background for any possible criminal or subversive record, or connection.

"It treats these researchers from the security standpoint as though they were employees of the department," one official explained.

Until recently, each of the armed services and defense agencies imposed its own standards on outside researchers seeking access to classified material.

Some standards were stiff, others were lenient. Some caused embarrassment, officials said.

The new rule applies throughout the Defense Department and is aimed at laying down uniform security clearance requirements for researchers.

It was inserted about two weeks ago into a 1957 directive on "safeguarding official information in the interests of the defense of the United States."

Officials said the clearance requirements will be minimum.

The new regulation calls for steps "to assure that classified defense information is not published or otherwise compromised."

It requires that any historical notes and manuscripts based on research in classified records by persons outside the government shall be submitted for a security censorship review.

Red Nations Pledge Their Friendship

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union and Communist China have exchanged their usual New Year's Day protestations of friendship — without a word about the bitter ideological side-purge that strains their relationship.

Both greetings predicted the estranged allies would march together to new successes in 1964.

"The friendship between the peoples of China and the Soviet Union is everlasting and unbreakable," said the greeting from Peking.

Nikita's Greeting

The message was signed by Communist Chairman Mao Tse-tung, Premier Chou En-lai and other leaders. It was sent to Premier Khrushchev and President Leonid Brezhnev.

Khrushchev sent a greeting to Mao Wednesday, saying "The Soviet people are sincerely happy at the achievements of our friend and ally the Chinese people on their path to socialism."

The greeting also pledged the Soviet Union "to strengthen friendship, unity and solidarity among all countries of socialism (communism)."

FARM POVERTY Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman says rural America is facing serious problems of low farm income and deep poverty.

These problems, Freeman said, affect 15 million persons in the nation's rural areas.

The secretary said in a New Year's statement that he is particularly concerned with the prospects of a drop in farm income this year and hoped Congress would enact legislation to bolster the market, price and income for producers of wheat, cotton and dairy products.

FOREIGN AID: Foreign aid officials believe they still have enough money for an economic aid program nearly the size of last year's despite Congress' $1.5 billion slash in new funds.

The funds available for overseas arms aid are down sharply from 1963. And the over-all money total for the current 12 months is $1.2 billion less than officials wanted.

What will ease the strain is the large carryover from money voted in past years. Officials of the Agency for International Development reported Wednesday that $669,876,000 is available for the previously voted funds that were never committed or that have been recovered from unfilled projects.

Scent of Roses Lingers Over City of Pasadena

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The scent of roses lingered over Pasadena today from the millions of blossoms that gilded floats in the annual New Year's Day Tournament of Roses parade.

The flower-bedecked floats, marching bands and horses in gleaming trappings drew more than 1.5 million persons to the city. The parade also was televised nationally.

Former President and Mrs. Eisenhower were in the lead in a gleaming white convertible. He was grand marshal and a special guest at the Rose Bowl football game afterward.

Curbside watchers, including the celebrities in VIP boxes, basked under sunny skies and temperatures which soared into the 80's.

It was the first Rose parade for astronaut Col. John H. Glenn Jr. and his family. Other special guests were Chief Justice Earl Warren, former California governor, and Senate majority leader Mike Mansfield, D-Montana.

Sponsors estimated 10 million blossoms decorated the floats which they estimated cost $750,000.

Production of 3 Major State Crops Are Down

MADISON (AP) — Production of three major field crops, hay, oats and corn, was down in Wisconsin in 1963 but was better than average, the Federal-Crop Reporting Service said today.

The crops make up 90 per cent of the state's harvested acreage. The hay crop was down 13 per cent compared to 1962, oats were 5.5 per cent off and corn for grain was down by 2 per cent, the service noted.

The summary said that the crop season started off well with early planting but soil moisture was slow and a late June dry spell brought on serious problems.

Other crops with higher yields than average included wheat, barley and rye. Soybeans, potato and tobacco production was less per acre than in 1962.

The service said weed and insect control was generally excellent in 1963 and there was relatively little disease.

All crops were harvested under good conditions and frost held off long enough for corn to mature well.

the new year at a big reception in the Kremlin.

Khrushchev, in an expansive mood, proposed 13 toasts, including an appeal for further lessening of cold war tensions in 1964.

Station Thinks Offer Of Funeral Success As Safety Campaign

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — Radio station KFXM was satisfied today its New Year's Eve safety campaign—accented by offering free funerals to traffic victims—was a success.

None of the approximately 225 persons who signed up for the offer collected. The deadline was 12:01 a.m. Wednesday. The San Bernardino-Riverside counties area which the station serves had no New Year's Eve traffic fatalities.

"We certainly consider it a success," said Bob Bunnell, station manager. "Only one person thought it was a great idea."

day when struck by a car in Sheboygan. Police said he had avoided a southbound car and leaped into the path of one going in the opposite direction.

A Racine man, Edward J. Murphy, 68, was killed about the same time when he was struck by a car while crossing a downtown Racine street.

Car Hits Pole
Separate accidents killed two 19-year-old youths before dawn in Milwaukee Wednesday.

Paul Gnas of Milwaukee died when a car in which he was riding climbed a median strip on Milwaukee's South Side and hit a light pole. Thomas Cope-land of Cary, Ill., died when the car in which he was a passenger hit a tree after crossing the median strip on a highway in northwestern Milwaukee County.

Harold H. Eid, 38, of Bayfield died early Wednesday as his car left a road two miles east of Bayfield and overturned four times while rolling 410 feet.

Robert P. Koebe, 19, of Merrill suffered fatal injuries when the car in which he was riding left a Merrill street and over-turned.

Car Turns Over
Donovan Miller, 22, of rural La Crosse, died early Wednesday as a car overturned on Highway 33 about five miles from La Crosse. He was thrown from the auto, which rolled over on him.

Kenneth Beauchamp, 16, of Eau Claire died Wednesday after being struck by a car on a street just outside of Eau Claire's west limits.

The last reported victim of 1963 was Harold Bower, 75, retired treasurer of Employers Mutual Insurance Co. of Wausau. He was struck by a car as he crossed a street in front of his Wausau home Tuesday night.

Holiday period victims listed earlier were two Delavan executives, Jerome H. Matson, 44, and Malcolm E. McNamara, 36, who died in the collision of their car and a train in Delavan Tuesday.

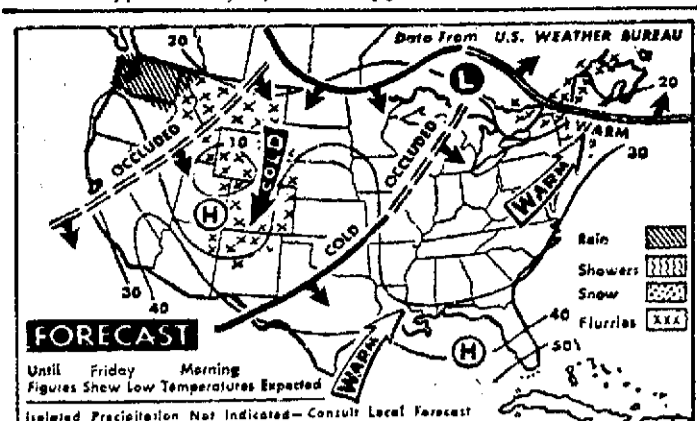

Paper's Funeral Offer Not Earned

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP) — The Burlington Free Press said none of the 17 merrymakers who registered in its novel holiday safety promotion earned a free funeral.

The Free Press had offered a free funeral to anyone who planned to drink and drive on New Year's Eve.

This was the third year of the program for the newspaper and it has yet to pay off.

Rain Will Fall Over the Northwest Pacific states Thursday night with snow and snow flurries over the plateau, except the extreme southern part. The extreme northern New England area will also have snow. It will be colder over the northern plains, the central plateau and plains and parts of the south Atlantic states with warmer weather over the Lakes, the valley regions, the Gulf region, southern plateau and plains. It will be fair to partly cloudy with little temperature change elsewhere. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Storm Dumps Heavy Snow Over Dixie

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Unaccustomed to the bite of severe winter weather, parts of the Deep South remained in the grip of a storm Thursday that dumped as much as 18 inches of snow on some areas before moving up the Eastern Seaboard New Year's Day. Moderating temperatures were expected to give some relief to the paralyzing ice and snow that swept northward from the Gulf of Mexico across Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia and into the Carolinas, Tennessee and Virginia.

There were 13 deaths directly attributed to the weather.

Schools were closed in many sections and some colleges postponed registration for the new term.

Driving Conditions
Driving conditions remained hazardous in areas where freezing left patches of ice on highways.

In Georgia, Civil Defense headquarters received requests for aid from several north and middle Georgia towns as broken power lines left some communities without electricity and communications were disrupted.

About 300 persons were fed at an emergency kitchen set up in a school at Warner Robins in middle Georgia. High winds wrecked a fishing pier at Savannah Beach on the Georgia coast.

In Alabama
Huntsville, Ala., recorded one of the heaviest snowfalls in Dixie—16 inches. Eight inches at Birmingham, Ala., was the heaviest snowfall on records there dating back to 1895.

Snowmen appeared in the French Quarter of New Orleans, site of the Sugar Bowl football game, where more than three inches of snow ushered in the new year—again the most since 1895. A warming trend over Louisiana and Mississippi left deep slush that was expected to turn to ice during the night.

The 10-inch snowfall at Nashville, Tenn.—deepest since 1929—resulted in closing the city's airport until noon today. Lawrenceburg recorded 16 inches and Columbia had 15.

Rockefellers Buy New Airplane

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has a new airplane that is geared to keep pace with his expanded political activity.

The Fairchild 27 turbo-prop, was purchased jointly about two weeks ago by the millionaire governor and his brothers, Laurance and David, a spokesman said Wednesday.

The spokesman said the plane has a range of about 2,000 miles, a top speed of about 300 miles an hour and can carry 22 passengers.

Kaukauna Vocational Classes Set

New Courses in Arts, Clothing, Math Being Offered

KAUKAUNA — Adult classes for the second semester at the vocational and adult school will get underway the week of Jan. 13 with enrollments to be accepted from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Jan. 6 through 9 in the school office. Additional classes will be offered if enrollment warrants.

Most classes will run for 10 weeks although a few are shorter. Plans are being considered for a spring term as well as summer courses. Limited openings remain in the beginning clothing, intermediate clothing, typing, office machines, drafting, welding, machine shop, oil and water color painting, crafts classes and jewelry and gem cutting courses.

A new course will be "Quick Clothing Construction Methods", taught by Mrs. Leo Driessen. Besides learning about sewing with new fabrics, students will learn about various kinds of interfacing, suitable linings and underlinings, how to shape collars and sleeves, simple tailoring methods, making of buttonholes and how to achieve invisible hems in both light and heavy fabrics.

Arts and crafts, another new course, will be taught by Mrs. Bernard Hupperts. Crafts to be taught include applique and crewelwork, covered hangers, basketry, cross-stitch, plastic casting, mosaic work, green glazing and place cards, wood stick mats and baskets, typewriter cover, centerpieces and others.

Modern Math
A third new course will be modern mathematics taught by John Stevens. The class is designed to aid in developing skills in modern mathematics. Courses to be offered at a later date include sales and merchandising, hydraulics I and II, tig welding, instrumentation and technical writing and automotive engines and component parts.

Classes scheduled on Mondays include rug hooking and braiding, beginning clothing I, knitting, slip covering and draperies, jewelry and gem cutting and typing. Tuesday classes include upholstery, knitting, welding, beginning clothing II, intermediate clothing I, Spanish, woodworking, machine shop, bookkeeping and office machines, arts and crafts and modern mathematics.

Wednesday classes include quick clothing construction, upholstery, knitting, beginning clothing I, intermediate clothing I, hospitality foods, millinery, rosemaking, oil and water color painting, woodworking and machine shop. Classes scheduled for Thursday are knitting and beginning clothing I.

Adult Classes at Kimberly Start Jan. 13

KIMBERLY — Second semester vocational school classes will get underway Jan. 13, according to Ansel Anderson, director, with several new courses planned.

A class in income tax form preparation will be held at the senior high school and an out-board motors class will start at the school Feb. 17. Classes resuming at the school will be sewing 11, art, and citizenship. Classes to be resumed at the junior high school are knitting and sewing 1. Persons interested in enrolling in classes can call the high school office.

Registration for AVS Scheduled for Tonight

Evening registration for second semester adult classes at the Appleton Vocational and Adult School will be from 7 to 8:30 p.m. today.

New classes will start and continuing day and evening adult classes will resume Monday.

Appleton Caters to Skaters; Opens Rink New Year's Eve

When some Appleton youths want to go ice skating on New Year's Eve, they're really determined about it — particularly those who use the Jones Park rink facilities.

The city park department, following an old practice, posted notice the rink would not be open Christmas and New Year's Eves.

Several hundred young Appleton citizens took exception and signed a petition for the rink to

Mr. and Mrs. John VanDree, 436 Roger St., Combined Locks, became the parents of a six-pound baby boy at 2:25 a.m. New Year's Day, the first baby born this year at Kaukauna Community Hospital. The boy will join four brothers at home. The baby weighed six pounds and was 19 inches long. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Teamsters Reject Appleton Contract

Union Says It Will Petition WERB for Fact-Finding Study

Relations between the City of Appleton and its unionized workers became strained this week when members of Teamsters Local 563 flatly rejected the city's 1964 contract offer.

The union Tuesday said it would petition the Wisconsin Employment Relations Board (WERB) at Madison for a fact-finding, or mediation if the city's negotiators would agree to the latter.

The common council's personnel committee and union bargaining group met periodically for several weeks under terms of the Municipal Employee Act. A week ago the personnel committee handed the union the city's final offer, which did not include a requested 15-cent an hour blanket pay increase.

Both parties in the dispute admit they are far apart on salary demands, but the personnel committee has indicated it intends to recommend merit increases for several municipal employees.

The salary recommendations will be presented to the common council Thursday night.

"The city's offer was rejected by an overwhelming majority," commented Robert Schlieve, secretary-treasurer for Local 563. "In fact, the vote for rejection was unanimous," he added.

Union members met at the Labor Temple at 527 N. Appleton St.

The vote, Schlieve said, was by secret ballot. About 100 members of the department of public works are represented by the union.

After recommending the city's offer be turned down, the union bargaining committee expressed the opinion that the city's negotiators were unaware of increases granted in other adjacent communities, and claimed the cost of living recently reached an all-time high.

"We feel the WERB will recognize that we have legitimate grounds for fact-finding," Schlieve said.

"The union also feels when a fact-finder is appointed, and he views the situation objectively, we will get some adjustments in wages," he continued.

In 1963 all city employees received a 2 per cent wage increase, and some also got job reclassifications which further boosted their salaries.

Schlieve said the union's demands would continue to be for

Phone Firm Promotes 3 Oshkosh Woman to Be Chief Operator For Appleton Area

Mrs. Gloria R. Moore has been named chief operator of the Appleton exchange of the Wisconsin Telephone Co. effective Jan. 1, according to L. T. Dillon, Neenah district traffic manager.

Mrs. Moore replaces Miss Grace G. Gilman, recently named chief operator of the Milwaukee information office.

Mrs. Moore, 1433 W. New York Ave., Oshkosh, joined the company as an operator in 1953. She was named assistant chief operator at Beaver Dam in 1956 and promoted to chief operator of the Port Washington exchange in 1957. After several assignments in the company's district office at Fond du Lac, she was named traffic assistant at the firm's division office in Appleton in 1962.

Long-Time Employee
Miss Gilman, 600 E. Washington St., Appleton, has been with the company since 1929, when she began her career as an operator in Milwaukee. She held a variety of positions in the company's traffic department until 1959, when she was promoted to chief operator of the Menominee Falls exchange. She was transferred to Fond du Lac as chief operator in 1960, and in 1961 was named to the same position at Appleton.

Mrs. Kuehler, 1503 W. College Ave., Appleton, was promoted to her present position as business service counselor, Neenah district, in 1961. She began her career as a records clerk in Appleton in 1951 and held a variety of positions in the company's commercial department before her promotion to business office supervisor at Neenah in 1956. She came to Appleton in 1946.

School Dance Set

A dance for students of junior high school age will be at Edison School from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Friday. Recreation Director E. W. Grover announced today.

Unconscious Five Hours in Wrecked Car Find DePere Man After Accident on Seminary Road

A man who lay unconscious in his wrecked car almost five hours before help arrived was treated for injuries and released from St. Vincent Hospital Wednesday morning.

Outagamie County police said Kenneth Webster, 20, route 2, West DePere, drove his car off Seminary Road sometime after 3 a.m. Wednesday and hit a culvert. His car was discovered by a passerby at 8 a.m. and Webster was taken to Green Bay for hospitalization. Webster received cuts and head injuries.

Two persons received minor injuries in a two car accident in the 1500 block of S. Oneida Street about 2:10 a.m. Wednesday, Appleton police said.

Karl R. Maertz, 26, 1513 S. Oneida St., was turning into his driveway, when his car collided with one driven by Richard J. Hughes, 24, 2319 S. Greenview St.

Injured was Mrs. Maertz, who received bruises and Hughes who was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital with bruises and cuts

Appleton Council Starts '64 With Empty Chambers

1964 had a strange beginning.

Appleton Common Council met New Year's Day, but no aldermen were present.

City Clerk Elden Broehm convened the "meeting" at exactly 7:30 p.m. and adjourned it a few seconds later.

The official record will read: "Due to a holiday and a quorum not being present the meeting was adjourned by City Clerk Elden Broehm to Jan. 2, 1964, at 7:30 p.m."

Broehm said he was the only person in the council chambers

The proceedings had been pre-arranged by the aldermen. They will meet tonight to conduct their regular business.

By law, Wednesday night's session had to be convened—whether anyone was there or not.

Appleton Library Lounge Construction Will Begin

Church Rally For Youths Starts Friday

Two-Day Regional Gathering Will be Staged in Appleton

The Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, Appleton, will be host to a winter youth rally Friday and Saturday.

Teen-agers from Green Bay, Oconto, Suring, Oshkosh, Pound, Chilton, Shiocton, Oneida, Black Creek, Gillett, Seymour and Gladstone, Mich., have registered for the two-day rally.

The rally will open with a "Singspiration" led by the Rev. Lawrence Berge of Oconto from 6 to 6:30 p.m. Friday. A special team from Mount Prospect, Ill., will direct a service at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The team is comprised of John Ankerberg, a Youth for Christ teen-age chalk artist and speaker; Tim Osterlund, a college sophomore who has a radio ministry as a vocal soloist; Jerry Heslinga, a junior at Wheaton High School who is active in Youth for Christ clubs, and Joseph Pierce, the senior member of the team, who has counseled teen-agers for years, especially in camp work, and is known as "Uncle Joe."

Gospel Program
The Mount Prospect group will give a Gospel presentation at the 7:30 p.m. service, which is open to the public.

The young people will attend a chapel service at 8 a.m. Saturday, followed by programs at 9:10 a.m. entitled "For Girls Only" by Mrs. Clark Gardner, Appleton, and "Strictly for Fellas" by Pierce. A session on "How to Improve Your Young People's Group" is set for 10 a.m., followed by "A Heart to Heart Talk" by Pierce at 11 a.m.

The rally program will conclude with recreation Saturday afternoon and a banquet at 5 p.m.

Holiday Theft From Kaukauna Apartment Reported by Tenant

KAUKAUNA — About $235 in change, a diamond ring, a bottle of whiskey and a black and white topcoat were reported stolen from an apartment occupied by Alvin Kronforst, 206 1/2 Main Ave., about 8:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Kronforst said he left the apartment about 6 p.m. Dec. 24 and had not returned until Wednesday.

There was no sign of forced entry. Cabinets and drawers in the apartment appeared to have been rifled. The change, was taken from a bowl and a piggy bank.

Student Meal Tickets To be Sold at KHS

KAUKAUNA — Students who failed to purchase meal tickets for the first week of school in January before leaving for Christmas vacation may pick up tickets at the school office between 9 a.m. and noon Friday, according to Walter Schmidt, principal.

No tickets will be sold outside of the hours specified, according to school authorities. Normal class periods will resume Monday.

New Facility for Adults Slated To Start Operating in February

Work on a new reading lounge for adults in the Appleton Public Library will start this week, and the lounge will be opened about mid-February.

Opening of the lounge will provide more room for student use of the library's main floor, and probably bring a relaxation of rules requiring high school students to have passes to use the adult department.

The front half of the present cataloguing department room will be converted to the adult lounge. A dividing wall will be built in the room, and the back half will be used as office space for the circulation department, and to house the elevator. The cataloguing department will be moved into the second floor work room.

In Lounge
The lounge will be about 25 by 15 feet in size, and will accommodate 12 to 14 persons. It will be furnished with lounge furniture, one library table and two carrel type desks. Use of the lounge will be limited to adults.

Wave of Building Sweeps Appleton in December

Building Inspector Charles Magnette today said new building during the past month amounted to $768,620.

Two major permits were those for the Aid Association for Lutherans building, $300,000 for foundation construction, and the new No. 1 fire station, $248,710 for general construction.

Magnette said 10 new homes were started during December, valued at $184,500.

The building inspector's annual report will be compiled by next week, he said.

Report $185 Taken From Pizza Palace

Approximately $185 were taken from drawers under a cash register in Sammy's Pizza Palace, 211 N. Appleton St., sometime overnight, police said today.

Police said there were no signs of forced entry into the building.

J. M. Balliet Feted on Business Anniversary

Appleton Man Has Been Bonding Agent Over 50-Year Period, Also Rail Leader

John M. Balliet, who is celebrating his 50th year in the insurance and bonding business in Appleton, has been honored with a plaque commemorating the event by the Appleton Association of Insurance Agents.

The plaque was presented by Daniel P. Steinberg, Jr., in behalf of the association at Butte des Morts Golf Club.

Balliet became an insurance man and broker in 1914 after having taught school in Cedar Point, Ill., and Freedom and after serving on the engineering staff of the Union Pacific Railroad in Omaha, Neb.

Representative Firm

He represented one surety company since 1914, the Fidelity and Deposit Co. of Maryland, and also represented the Hartford Fire Insurance Co. for the last 25 years.

He has written the largest volume of contract bond premiums of any agency in Wisconsin since 1923.

His association and interest in railroads, dating back to 1909, led him into the reorganization of the Missouri Pacific Railroad

A small collection of fiction, non-fiction, magazines and newspapers will be kept in the lounge. Additional subscriptions to some magazines and newspapers may be necessary if they prove to be in demand in both departments. Chief Librarian Gordon Bebeau said.

The remodeling will bring the cataloguing, book preparation, binding and repair work together in one work room. Moving the cataloguing department to second floor will increase the use of the elevator to transport books, Bebeau noted.

Total cost of the remodeling will be about $2,000.

With the opening of the adult lounge the library probably will eliminate the requirement of a pass for teen-agers using the adult department, Bebeau said. The pass system was adopted several years ago after complaints from adults that young people were creating too much disturbance. If a student cannot find materials he needs in the youth department, he must get a pass from the youth librarian to use the adult department. Seniors can get permanent passes.

Passes Needed
The passes were necessary because of the limited space in the adult department, Bebeau said. The maximum seating capacity in the present adult reading room and reference room is about 70, he said.

If the new system work out, it may lead to the eventual elimination of the youth department, he said. The room now used for the youth department could be used then to expand shelving space for the children's department.

The youth department will be continued for the present, Bebeau said. Some students, mainly freshmen, prefer to use it, he said. The youth department has about 5,000 books, the adult department about 65,000 and the children's department about 37,000.

The total library collection has remained static at about 107,000 books because there is not room for more shelving without crowding, Bebeau said. As books are added, other books are discarded. From 33 to 40 percent of the collection is in circulation at any one time, he said.

Balliet remains as a director of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad, the Detroit River Tunnel Co., Michigan Central Railroad and Lake Erie and Eastern Railroad. He also serves on the executive committee of the first two listed.

His position as a director of these firms was jeopardized in 1961 when the Murchison interests of Texas wrested control of the Alleghany Corporation of New York, holding company of New York Central, from Allan P. Kirby. However, Balliet was retained on these boards by the Murchisons and in November, 1963, the Kirby interests regained control of Alleghany Corporation.

News of Hollywood Rated for Importance

Year Just Over Brought Tragedy,
Trial and Change to Movie Capital

BY BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Another year of trial and tragedy for Hollywood has ended.
There was death in the 1963 news as more famous figures disappeared from the Hollywood scene. Crime also figured in the headlines with a bizarre kidnapping and a murder.

But the news wasn't all bad. Hollywood stars participated in famous weddings seemed to outweigh divorces—a reversal of the usual trend. And at year's end the outlook for the film industry was generally bullish. Lively, commercial attractions appeared to be sparking a renewal of interest in moviegoing on the part of the American public.

Kidnaping Top Story
Here is how the year's top news stories appeared to this reporter:

1. The Frank Sinatra Jr. kidnaping. Reading like something out of a Sinatra movie, it was the leading Hollywood story of 1963 and perhaps the decade.

2. Elizabeth Taylor-Richard Burton. Their romance was beginning to rival "Young Dr. Malone" for longevity of soap operatics. Sybil Burton's Mexican divorce made Eddie Fisher the "odd man out," but that problem faced solution at year's end.

3. Dick Powell-Jack Carson deaths. Coming within 24 hours, the deaths of the two fine performers underlined the continuing loss of Hollywood's great names and the cruelty of cancer.

4. Eric Johnston's edath. The passing of the film industry's statesman seemed to signal a change of eras. Five months later his post as head of the producers' organization remained unfilled.

5. The Academy Awards. Oscar proved he was still capable of surprises by rewarding Anne Bancroft, Ed Begley and Patty Duke as well as the more predictable wins of Gregory Peck and "Lawrence of Arabia."

6. Frank Sinatra's Nevada fess. His theme song for 1963 might well be one of his old hosiery and gloves.

numbers: "Everything Happens To Me." The singer divested himself of gambling resort holdings after the state had cited him for entertaining a reputed gangster at Lake Tahoe.

7. The Negro drive. Negroes sought and were getting more jobs as actors and to a lesser degree—in production as well.

8. "Cleopatra." The release of the most expensive film of all time was an event in itself. It helped bring 20th Century-Fox back from the brink of financial disaster.

9. The Karyn Kuncinet murder. The strangling of the lovely and promising young actress remained unsolved a month later.

10. The multistudio plan. Fox, MGM and Columbia took the town by surprise in announcing they were considering the sharing of a studio to be built in the Malibu Mountains. While still in the talk stage, the plan held promise of a bold new period for the American film industry.

Federal Grain Is Released in Eight Wisconsin Counties

MADISON (AP)—The U.S. Department of Agriculture has approved the release of government-owned feed grains for livestock in eight Wisconsin counties where extended drought cut harvests.

Gov. John W. Reynolds announced the release for these counties, Florence, Forest, Lincoln, Marinette, Oneida, Sawyer, Vilas and Washburn.

Hanson Named Ripon Mills Executive

RIPON (AP)—W. J. Hanson, vice president and treasurer of the Ripon Knitting Works since 1962, has been named executive vice president. He will continue as treasurer. A. J. Novitsky, vice president in charge of production, has been named to the additional post of secretary. The firm produces casual footwear, might well be one of his old hosiery and gloves.

Borge Trivia Make Up TV Special

BY TV SCOUT

8-9 (Channel 11) — Victor Borge once again proves himself the master of delightful, irrelevant trivia in Victor Borge at Carnegie Hall. This is Borge at his best: trying to decide, with Leonid Hambro, which Rachmaninoff Prelude to play, appearing with Hambro on a split screen as they try to start Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto, attempting to accompany tenor Sergio Franchi, and musing about such weighty problems as how a fly lands on the ceiling.

7-7:30 (Channel 11) — Regular viewers will get a kick out of The Donna Reed Show, but others may find it too sticky sweet for consumption. It's a flashback to the time of Mary's birth.

7-8 (Channel 2) — Gil Favor (Eric Fleming) has obviously been watching television since he proves an expert prairie psychiatrist in the matter of curing poor, sick Susan Kohner, sought by the Cheyenne who want to burn her as a witch. They don't understand mental illness, you see. But Favor does. And what is even more remarkable, he convinces the Indians of that on Rawhide.

7:30-8 (Channel 11) — My Three Sons has a delightful episode in which Chip (Stanley Livingston) is cast as Columbus in a school play. He is a reluctant hero until Bub (William Frawley) explains that show business is in his blood.

7:30-8:30 (Channel 4-5) — Dr. Kildare has a melodrama with a couple of unpleasant scenes, and good performances from Bradford Dillman, Carol Rossen and Richard Chamberlain. Dillman is a beach boy who gets through life on charm. But his charm has no effect on Kildare, so he plots a lurid vengeance involving Miss Rossen.

8-9 (Channel 2) — There's a pretty good murder for mystery fans to try to solve on Perry Mason. It takes place in an elevator, the movable equivalent of a "locked room."

8:30-9 (Channel 4-5) — The helpless Johnsons (Donald Foster and Norma Varden) add some bright moments to Hazel. They sell her a Model T car.

Governor Okays Bill to Assist Needy Indians

Post-Crescent News Service

MADISON — Gov. Reynolds has approved a legislative bill that will set up a special $1 million assistance program for needy Indian residents of Menominee County. The program will be administered by the State Department of Public Welfare.

The measure approved by the legislature at its special session in November was drafted by the governor as a substitute for another bill that had been offered by Menominee Enterprises, Inc.

The new law will authorize special state loans and grants to Menominees who desire to pledge their Menominee Enterprises bonds which become negotiable on Jan. 1. The state grants and loans will be made on the basis of need as determined by the welfare department.

The purpose of the legislation is to avoid exploitation of the Menominees by private speculators.

Originally the corporation, which said it does not have the resources to buy the bonds from their owners on its own account, proposed that the state government buy them as investments.

State officials objected that the bonds are worth substantially less than their $3,000 face value, although the corporation has met interest payments on them to date.

and by the time this takes place, there won't be a viewer unable to tell how this will save the day. (Color)

9-10 (Channel 2) — There's a nice ecumenical spirit on The Nurses, which builds slowly into a touching program. Fritz Weaver, who gives a sensitive, controlled performance, is a blind Anglican minister suffering from ulcers. His faith is faltering until he decides to help prepare a blind, guilt-ridden Jewish boy for his Bar Mitzvah.

9-10 (Channel 4-5) — "The Deep End," on Kraft Suspense Theater, is a fairly faithful adaptation of John D. MacDonald's novel "The Drowner." Clu Gulager is a detective investigating the death by drowning of Ellen McRae, at the request of the dead woman's sister (also Ellen McRae). (Color)

MENASHA — Mayor John Klein this morning said he is considering setting up a commission composed of five citizens who would consider ways and take steps to develop downtown Menasha, including developing ways of bringing in new

AVS Has New Shorthand Tape System

A new shorthand dictation system with which students can simultaneously practice with taped dictations at different rates of speed is being installed at the Appleton Vocational and Adult School.

Two tape recorders, each connected by headphones to four desks, have been installed in the business education department. Up to four students can work with dictations from each tape recorder.

The new system will be ready for use Monday. Installation costs were less than $50. One tape recorder was added.

If the system works as anticipated, two more tape recorders with headphones probably will be added next year, AVS Director Carl Bertram said. This could lead in the future to an electronic business education laboratory in which students could plug in to dictations at any rate of speed they wanted, he said.

The system will be used by both day and evening students. Bertram said it will be particularly useful for evening classes in which students take shorthand at various rates of speed.

Arrangements will be made so that full-time day school students can use the recorders for practice during their free periods as well as in classes, Bertram said.

Approve 9 Homes In Rural Area During December

OSHKOSH — Nine homes worth $147,700 were approved for construction in the county during December by Carl Mailahn, county zoning officer.

Also authorized were five additions to homes costing $9,650, three garages worth $1,500, two farm buildings valued at $4,100 and one $400 sign.

Homes authorized for construction in the Town of Menasha, and their building permit values were issued to James H. Lewandowski, 1339 Stead Drive, Menasha, $12,000; Stanley E. Miller, 711 Kinzie Court, Menasha, $17,300; Edw. J. Lotzer, 716 1/2 Racine St., Menasha, $18,500; and E. and R. Construction Co., Neenah, $11,500.

Permits for homes in the Town of Neenah were issued to James A. Sorenson, Plummer Harbor, Neenah, $16,500; Charles Kuchenbecker, 1460 S. Park Ave., Neenah, $15,500; Larry Krueger, 620 Fifth St., Menasha, $17,400; and Russell L. Mueller, 942 W. Caroline St., Neenah, $25,000.

The ninth new home permit was issued to Carl Mathwig, 106 W. 11th Ave., Oshkosh, for a $14,000 home in the Town of Oshkosh.

Five Drivers Pay Fines for Traffic Counts

KAUKAUNA — Five drivers who were involved in minor accidents during the past week posted bond or were fined after appearing before Oscar T. Jahns, municipal justice of the peace, Monday.

Mrs. Sandra Martzahl, 26, 722 Lawe St., Kaukauna, forfeited $10 bond at the police station on a charge of failure to yield right of way after being involved in a Dec. 17 accident.

Found guilty of the same charge and fined $20 before Jahns were Merlin E. Weyers, 21, 617 E. Maes Ave., Kimberly, and Gary Brick, 17, route 1, Greenleaf, both arrested for the same accident on Dec. 28. Pleading guilty to a failure to yield charge and fined $15 was Harry Verhagen, 71, route 1, Kaukauna. His accident was Dec. 26.

Richard Walker, 1413 Sullivan Ave., Kaukauna, pleaded guilty to driving on the wrong side of the road and was fined $15 after a Dec. 24 accident.

Johnson to Appoint Envoy to Argentina

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson plans to nominate Edwin M. Martin, a veteran Foreign Service officer, as ambassador to Argentina.

The 55-year-old native of Dayton, Ohio, will succeed Robert McClintock, who, in turn, "is expected to be appointed to another important post in the near future," a White House announcement said Wednesday.

Klein said if the commission is formed it would be of the best conscientious and capable persons he can find.

Consideration of such a commission came after several proposed projects for downtown Menasha, including new construction, were made public.

Downtown Mall
One of the projects of interest is a mall for the downtown area. Klein said he has sought the opinion of several merchants on a mall and most have indicated they are in favor of at least a study of the project.

He said a model of the proposed project and ideas for construction of a mall will be sought soon.

The commission would work on such projects as well as attempting to draw new businesses to Menasha.

Work With Chamber
Klein said it would work with the Twin City Chamber of Commerce so as to not duplicate efforts and to augment that group.

The last commission Klein set up, the municipal building committee, proved successful. The committee set up a study on needs and possibilities of a new municipal administration center, and managed to advance the project to actual plans proposed this year. An architect is expected to be selected in the near future.

E. T. Jourdain Net Estate Distributed

OSHKOSH — County Judge Herbert J. Mueller Tuesday ordered distribution of the $311,969 net estate of the late E. T. Jourdain of Menasha to his heirs.

Jourdain operated an insurance agency. He died Oct. 14, 1958. Shares of $26,000 each were assigned to his son, E. T. Jourdain Jr., North Babylon, Long Island, N.Y.; his daughter, Mildred Copes, Modesto, Calif., $5,500 each to Barbara Copes and Linda and Robert Jourdain, grandchildren, and $5,000 each to Thomas Copes and William Jourdain, grandchildren.

The balance of the estate, estimated at $241,969 is to go to his widow, Jessie Jourdain.

An inheritance tax notice filed in the estate of the late Ella A. Miller of Winneconne, who died July 12, 1963, listed the net value of her estate at $102,450.

A daughter, Edith Macaulay, Chappaqua, N.Y., will receive $33,296 as her share, a son, Virgil R. Miller, Ann Arbor, Mich., will receive $33,087 as his share, and another son, Horace G. Miller, Milwaukee, will receive $33,287 as his share.

4 Kaukauna Men Get Papers for Alderman Posts

KAUKAUNA — Four candidates for aldermen in the spring election took out nomination papers at the city clerk's office Tuesday, two of them seeking the post for the same ward.

Alois Peters, 1007 Hillcrest Drive, took out papers for the Fifth ward aldermanic post. Married and the father of five children, he works in the wood-room at Thilmany Pulp and Paper Company. This is his first attempt to run for public office.

Jerome Truymen, 501 E. Seventeenth St., took out papers for Fourth ward alderman. He has run unsuccessfully on two other occasions. He is married, the father of two children and employed as a carpenter with Renn and Company.

James McDaniels, 311 W. Third St., will be making his third attempt for a Third ward aldermanic post and will likely oppose George Simon who took out papers earlier. McDaniels is married, the father of three children and works for the Outagamie County Highway department.

Clayton Van Dyke, 328 E. Eighteenth St., married and the father of four children, will be making his third attempt to land the Fourth ward county supervisor post. He is manager of a local theater.

Scholarships Established

Appleton Company Employees' Children Will be Eligible

Mt. Hope Machinery Co., with plants in Appleton, Massachusetts, North Carolina and Ontario, has announced establishment of a scholarship program to aid children of company employees.

The awards of $350 each will be made available, according to Ray Pitsch, Appleton plant manager, each April to the two highest ranking high school seniors in each of the plant areas who are children of Mt. Hope Machinery Co. employees.

Student Choice
The winners may choose any college or university in the United States or Canada and select any course of study leading to a degree. Each scholarship may be renewed for up to three years, after a review of the student's scholastic record, personal standards and participation in campus activities, according to Pitsch.

As the 1964-65 school year will be the first year of operation of the program, the company also has announced that two additional scholarships will be available for students in college who would not otherwise have an opportunity to compete in the scholarship program.

The Appleton plant is at 110 N. Douglas St.

Mel A. Raught, 90, a long-time Kaukauna resident, died after a lengthy illness Monday. Raught served the city as alderman for a number of years. He was in charge of the Kaukauna Times print shop. He later opened his own printing business.

Training Programs,
Spring Meeting
To Be Discussed

Appleton Power Squadron is launching another season when it meets at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Conway Hotel for a district council meeting to discuss training programs and a national spring conference.

Registration for the local squadron's elementary piloting program will be Monday, when the 12-week course begins in Madison Jr. High School. Course sessions, which will be from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Mondays, are designed primarily to teach boating safety.

The district council meeting Saturday will be attended by representatives from throughout Wisconsin and Minnesota, the two states which comprise Power Squadron District No. 10. The conference to be discussed is scheduled for April 11-12 in Minneapolis.

60,000 Members
The United States Power Squadron now has 310 member squadrons and more than 60,000 members including squadrons in Hawaii, Yokohama and Tokyo, Puerto Rico and the Philippines.

Walter Winkler, lieutenant commander of the Appleton unit, said the elementary piloting course is essential to individual membership. It can be followed, as a member chooses, with any of the dozen other courses offered including training in advanced piloting, navigation, marine electronics, engine maintenance, weather and other boating training. There is no charge for the elementary course.

Worker Dies When Hit by Frozen Wood
Bernard Marasch, 48, Rural New London, Killed Instantly

NEW LONDON — A 48-year-old rural New London man was killed this morning when he was struck by a large chunk of frozen wood shavings thrown down the chute of a 40-foot high McGraw-Edison silo here.

The victim was Bernard Marasch, route 2, New London, building maintenance supervisor for the manufacturing firm.

The frozen clot of shavings, which are stored in the silo before they are burned in the company boilers, was pitched down the chute by a worker on top of the structure.

He said he did not see Marasch when he dumped the shavings. The worker said he did not know Marasch had been injured until he finished his work atop the silo and climbed down.

Marasch apparently was killed instantly. He had been employed by the firm about eight years. Survivors include his widow, three sons, and a daughter.

Display Burns
Appleton firemen were called to the Dr. J. C. Stillman home, 218 N. Drew St., Tuesday night when an electrical cord short circuited and set a mantelpiece Christmas display on fire.

Marinette County Man Sentenced 6 Months on Driver's License Count

OSHKOSH — Dominick Appleglise, 23, Athelstone, Marinette County, this morning was sentenced by County Judge James Sitter to six months in the county jail for driving a car after his license had been revoked. Appleglise pleaded guilty to the charge this morning.

He was arrested by state police at U. S. 41 and Cecil Street in Neenah on Sept. 14 and had not appeared in court on the

100 Pounds of Top-Graded Meat Stolen From Market

OSHKOSH — Someone will be eating "pretty high off the hog," or steer as this case might be and will have plenty of coffee on hand for those coffee breaks. Owners of Tornow's Supermarket on State 47 just outside

Appleton reported to the Winnebago County Sheriff's office at 8:18 p.m. on New Year's Eve that someone had broken into the store since it closed at 5:30 p.m. that day. Entry was gained by breaking a door window and reaching in to unlock the door.

Taken were 100 pounds of top grade meat including porterhouse, sirloin and top round steaks, two beef loins weighing

50 to 60 pounds each, three beef ribs weighing 25 to 30 pounds each and a case containing 12 cans of two-pounds of coffee each.

The coffee sold at $1.19 per can each, the beef loins were worth $77 and the beef ribs were worth $49.50 each. An estimate of the cost of the steaks will be furnished the sheriff's office today.

Also reported to the sheriff's office was a break-in at the office of Dr. James Gmeiner, 1260 Valley Road, Town of Menasha. Nothing was noticed taken. The break-in was discovered by the janitor at 4:19 p.m. Wednesday.

Union Rejects Terms Of Appleton Offers an across-the-board pay hike, along with certain job reclassifications.

"Our petition for fact-finding will be accompanied with an informal request for mediation if the city will concur," Schlieve said.

Consider Everything
"We feel certain a fact-finder will take everything into consideration other than political ties and make a realistic appraisal of the situation," Schlieve added.

Schlieve said the personnel committee "has circumvented the bargaining process."

"Some personnel committee members are employees in this area who have granted increases to their own employees for 1964," Schlieve claimed, "and we wonder on what basis they arrive at a decision that city employees are not entitled to salary adjustments."

Schlieve said the city proposed to discontinue handling dues deduction.

"We have asked why, and if it is a cost item, the union has indicated willingness to reimburse the city for the cost involved," Schlieve said.

A spokesman for the personnel committee said earlier in the week that merit increases recommended, and approved by the committee for the most part, were based on reports and recommendations of department heads.

Not Reported
Only the members of the committee will know what city employees will get a raise until the report is submitted to the council Thursday.

Negotiators for the city have said they feel the wages being paid municipal employees here are in line and in some instances higher than those in other areas. The personnel committee said it was willing to recommend the council grant an increase in fringe benefits.

The previous report of the personnel committee was approved Monday night by the council's finance committee. It calls for: The city paying 60 per cent of the gross premium of the group hospital and surgical insurance for all city employees, effective Jan. 1. It now contributes 50 per cent.

Half Day
A half day be considered additional holiday pay if Dec. 24 falls on an employee's regular work day.

After 20 years of service up to and including the 25th year, one additional day of vacation be granted for each full year of service.

Four weeks (20 working days) of vacation after 25 years service with the city. It was reported previously that the city and union reached agreement on revised work rules for the department of public works.

F104 Jet Squadron To Seek New Record

MADRID, Spain (AP) — The U.S. Air Force on Jan. 6 will try to top a record for nonstop flight by a squadron of F104 jet fighters. Officials said the 475th Squadron will fly 7,500 miles from George Air Force Base, Calif., to the Strategic Air Command base at Moron, near Seville.

Three States Excel

Efforts by Officials Cut Traffic Death Rate

NEW YORK (AP) — Rhode Island, Hawaii, Connecticut and Massachusetts boast the best records among the states in holding down auto deaths. How do they do it?

While many factors are involved, an Associated Press survey disclosed, one stood out in each of the states — an unceasing effort of officialdom to improve traffic safety records. National Safety Council figures show that Rhode Island, the smallest state, had the ra-

“We’re not accepting any laurels,” said Rhode Island Gov. John H. Chafee. “We’ve still got a long way to go.”

Charles W. Shields Jr., executive secretary of the governor’s council on highway safety, said Rhode Island has certain factors working in its favor.

Half of the state is heavily urbanized, with little high-speed traffic. Expressways in urban areas are new, with all the safety advantages of modern engineering.

The rural roads have few long, monotonous straight stretches where drivers are likely to lose perspective or fall asleep.

The state has less through traffic than many others.

Speed Checks

The Rhode Island Police executive officer, James A. Iacoi, credits the inauguration of regular speed checks — and the ensuing publicity — with helping combat some of the state’s highway problems.

Much of the credit for Hawaii’s low traffic toll is given to news media.

“The whole objective is to make the public safety conscious,” says Lt. Eugene Fletcher, head of the traffic accident investigation bureau of the Honolulu police.

An incentive program to encourage safe driving is used by the state’s second largest city, Hilo, on the island of Hawaii. “If there are no traffic fatalities for 75 days, we give the motorists a reward by closing the parking meters for a day.”

Hawaii is not faced with three factors that contribute to many traffic deaths on the mainland — speed, fatigue and the out-of-state driver.

The chief state highway engineer, John Myatt, said, “The motorists are familiar with the highways and this is a big point. The greatest speed limit on the island of Oahu is 45 miles an hour,” he said.

Hawaii recorded 85 traffic deaths last year. Seventy-one occurred on Oahu, which has 80 per cent of the state’s population.

Then came Hawaii, 12.3 deaths. Connecticut, 12.4, and Massachusetts, 13.6.

Poet Charlie Turns Sensational When His Words Are Automational

BY CHARLES HOUSE

Post-Crescent Staff Writer
If gentle reader is going to protest the lilt of today's column, let him first attack Don Smits who started it by submitting a verse on automation.

But as I see it, the worst thing that Mr. Smits has done is the stirring up of the muse in me, and perhaps you see it that way, too. If so, please do not complain to the management.

A MOTHER'S PLEA
I wish there were
An automated way
To care for children
As they play —

An automated gadget
When the youngest falls

And falls again,
And when the noses
Start to run, automation
Would be fun.

But then I guess
It's not to be
Automation
Aint for me. — Don Smits

If Mr. Smits
Wants my ovation
He would give ME
Automation.
Not to mamas
Or that gender;
Not to children
Tough nor tender;

Not for grandpa
In his dotage;
Not for rich guys
And their boatage.
Not for grandma
Or her shawl,
Not for any girls
At all.

Not for Army
Nor for Navy
Nor for anyone
Who's bravey.
Not for K.P.s
Or their kettles.
Not for Leathernecks
With medals.

Not for Airmen
In the blue;
Not even, friends,
For you or you.
Here's the way
That it should be
Just for me.

I would like some Good machinery
To make me look
Alert and leany,
And calm and poised
With savoire faire
And also not Such greying hair,

I would want
A gadget nifty
To make me smart
Like Thomas Swifty;
Loved by all
Both near or far,
Excepting only
Jackie Paar

I would like to Write much better;
To answer every Sassy letter,
Be debonair
And loved by dogs
And chickens, cows and goats
And hogs

I'd like to be
A better fella.
Simmered down
And grown more mella.
With a lovely
New machine
To make me nicer
Than I've been.

But if this honest Declaration
Won't get me the Automation,
I will make
Some restitutions
With lotsa New Years'
Resolutions.

Six GOP Senators Will Seek Crack In Medicare Block

Legislation for Health Care May Begin Battle in Congress

BY JOSEPH R. COYNE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Six Republican senators say they hope to crack the stalemate on health care for the aged legislation by introducing their own plan when Congress reconvenes next week.

They described it as the most comprehensive health care program ever prepared for Congress and said it would make use of both Social Security funds and general government revenues, and private insurance companies.

Health care legislation will likely set off one of the big battles in Congress this election year.

President Johnson is expected to press hard for passage of the bill—or a version of it—which the late President John F. Kennedy was unable to push through Congress.

New Yorkers Through Strike Threat Again

Transport Workers Settlement Brings Political Agreement

BY RICHARD F. WHALEN
NEW YORK (AP)—It was touch-and-go, but New Yorkers weathered another threatened strike against the city's subways and buses on New Year's Day.

The biennial New Year's Eve question, "Will they run or won't they?" wasn't answered until 4½ hours after the original strike deadline. They ran.

It was the third time since 1957 that Michael J. Quill, president of the AFL-CIO Transport Workers Union, and Transit Authority negotiators pulled a cliff-hanger.

Foes Agree

The settlement also brought an agreement between two political foes, Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

The added cost of the new 2-year contract, estimated at $38.6 million to $42 million, will be absorbed by the city, Rockefeller will support legislation to authorize the transfer of some city assets to the Transit Authority and speed up reimbursements for electricity, among other things.

The fare will remain at 15 cents, at least for a year.

Demand Dropped

Quill dropped his chief demand, a 32-hour, 4-day work week, in return for a pay boost for the 35,000 workers.

David L. Cole, chairman of

Joe Farkas of Milwaukee keeps his pipe and toes dry as he soaks today in ice-crusted Lake Michigan during the annual New Year's Day dip of the Milwaukee Polar Bear Club. Members who insisted it was warmer in the water than on the shore were right. Under the ice, the water was 34. (AP Wirephoto)

Two Taverns and Their Patrons Robbed Apparently by Same Men

NORTH CHICAGO, Ill. (AP)—Police say two men apparently robbed two taverns 20 miles apart in two different states during New Year's Eve celebrations early Wednesday.

Patrons at Ray and Gene's Tavern in Kenosha, Wis., said two well-dressed men had been playing shuffleboard and buying drinks when, about 2 a.m., one of them went outside and returned with a shotgun. The other then pulled a gun out of a brief case.

"Throw your money on the bar, folks," said one of the men. They collected about $200 from the 20 customers and $250 from the cash register, then locked the patrons in the basement and fled.

About 5 a.m., in Little Pete's tavern in North Chicago, Ill., the mayor's transit labor board, said the employees will receive an 11-cent an hour raise in 1964, 8½ cents more on Jan. 1, 1965 and another 8½ cents on July 1, 1965. Fringe benefits to cost 7 cents an hour will be added Jan. 1, 1965, he said.

Average pay under the old contract was $2.83 an hour for a 40-hour, 5-day week.

owner of the tavern and a navy chief petty officer. The other gunman stood guard over the patrons in a rear room.

The gunman took $1,300 from Chief Stools, then drove back to the tavern and the two fled.

1,597 Take Part in Training Programs

MADISON (AP)—The State Industrial Commission reported today that 1,597 Wisconsin residents have participated in training programs to acquire or improve skills under the Manpower Development and Training Act.

The commission said that 319 trainees completed classes at the end of December and that 78 per cent of the trainees found jobs.

A broadcast Wednesday, monitored in Miami, said "we thought of saluting this anniversary with a military parade, but decided that to frighten the reactionaries wandering around, it would be best to hold a rally of workers and peasants."

3 Bills Signed By Gov. Reynolds

MADISON (AP)—Gov. John W. Reynolds has signed a bill requiring architects and engineers submitting plans for public buildings to indicate in writing whether the structures would meet federal fallout shelter requirements.

Among other bills signed by the governor Tuesday was one permitting judges to sentence defendants in support cases under the Huber Law, which confines prisoners to jails at night but allows them to go to their jobs.

Another limits to $150 bonuses and prizes that may be paid to agents by stock life insurance companies. The measure also repeals the requirement that life insurance agents must be United States citizens before obtaining a license, and makes 25 rather than 100 persons the minimum number eligible for group insurance policies where trust funds are used.

Decision Stands

The county commission refused on Tuesday to reconsider its earlier decision not to count the number of Negroes among the county's 7,000 employees. A spokesman said it did not have the information and cited state civil service laws which offi-

Prayer, Messages of Peace Mark New Year

Estimated 300,000 Persons Celebrate at Times Square

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Reverly, prayer and hopeful messages of peace marked the start of the new year around the world.

Times Square had its biggest crowd in years for the countdown to 1964 — an estimated 300,000. A few blocks away, 3,000 persons dined and danced in Grand Central Terminal in one of the largest New Year's Eve parties. It was a benefit ball for the National Association for Mental Health.

Fireworks illuminated the skies over the Berlin wall. Parisians leaned on automobile horns on the Champs Elysees.

Spaniards ate 12 grapes at midnight. Italians threw crockery from windows. And residents of Buenos Aires tossed tons of ticker tape and old calendars from windows.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev raised a toast at a Kremlin party and sent traditional New Year's messages to world leaders.

Pope Paul VI began the new year with a Mass in his private chapel. At noon he told a throng of 30,000 in St. Peter's Square the new year "seems to inspire serene wishes of peace and well-being for all."

In Japan, temple bells tolled out the old year. Japanese offered traditional first prayers of the new year.

Soldier Dies

JUNCTION CITY, Kan. (AP)—Army Spec. 4.C. Gary W. Kuehl, 21, of Tomah, Wis., who was stationed at Ft. Riley, Kan., was killed Wednesday when his car overturned after leaving icy U.S. Highway 77. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Kuehl of Tomah.

Cials said prohibit the maintenance of such records.

Schimenz said the state commission wanted the details because it had received "many complaints — not written, but verbal—that the county has not done its fair share against discrimination."

1964—A Spectacular Year for United States

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — This should be a year of spectaculars, certainly at home, maybe abroad.
At home — the presidential race, with all that means: public approval through public exposure; and public approval

mit conference and a grinding Russian-Chinese break. President Johnson has to achieve in one year what the late President John F. Kennedy had three years to work at: public approval through public exposure; and public approval through public performance. Johnson, in the time left before the campaign, can't match the amount of public exposure Kennedy got in speeches, trips, banquets, and appearances before news and television cameras as practically every day.

Working Overtime

But he's working at it, and working overtime, to create a favorable image of himself as a busy-busy president: at the White House, on trips, walks, tours of his ranch and picture posing.

There'll be lots more of this. Johnson is a man in a hurry. Since he is so obviously seeking to stay in the public eye, coming as he does from the relative obscurity of the vice-presidency, a summit conference with Soviet Premier Khrushchev would snatch the world's attention like nothing else.

And, if it turned out half-well, it would snatch the world's approval. That's why such a meeting seems a strong possibility. Meanwhile, talk without performance at home will be an empty achievement, and probably a self-defeating one. Johnson will have to try, and try harder than Kennedy ever did, to get some major legislation through Congress.

He's not as mild as Kennedy and for that reason is apt to get into some harrowing disputes with congressional leaders, an embroilment Kennedy always avoided.

Kennedy's technique, however, was not very productive in getting Congress to do what he wanted. A different, harsher technique might be more effective.

Yet, Johnson stands a chance of hurting himself if he gets too rough. He doesn't have Kennedy's ease or grace. A fight creates enemies and gives the impression of a man in trouble. Kennedy made an effort to appear both calm and in full control, even when Congress frustrated and ignored him. But the Kennedy technique of no fights with Congress was simply a repetition of President Eisenhower's technique.

The result was 10 years of placidity in relations between the White House and Congress. There hasn't been a good brawl since the days of President Truman.

But all this is only half the picture of 1964.

The Republicans' presidential hopefuls will have a double chore, too: knocking one another out of the race while trying to scuttle Johnson.

Kennedy, after three years of building public confidence in his leadership, could have relaxed a bit under attack until the Republicans had picked their candidate and the race was under way.

Johnson can enjoy no such luxury. Besides, it's probably not in his nature to grin and bear it. He has a struggle every inch of the way to election day.

Since he's not a man who takes criticism lightly, what's ahead for him is enough to heat up any politician. He not only has to make a record for himself but then defend it and defend Kennedy's record as a Democratic leader, too.

The fact that Kennedy was so obviously well-liked might have

Cubans Pressured to Deposit in Savings

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "Voluntary savings" take 20 million pesos monthly from Cuban paychecks, the anti-Castro Revolutionary Workers Federation said today.

The exile organization said pressure is put on workers to make ample deposits in the government savings system. It quoted a recently arrived refugee, Arnaldo Machado, as saying there is so much red tape that workers can't withdraw deposits.

Average deposits by 2 million workers, the report said, are 10 pesos monthly. A peso is officially pegged at $1.

taken some of the spirit, and much of the fight, out of his Republican opponents. But the brand-new Johnson is fresh meat for them.

This could well be the roughest and most unpleasant presidential race since Truman beat New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in 1948.

But Johnson has one enormous advantage over the Republicans: As president he can stay in focus every day.

Thursdays, January 2, 1964 Appleton Post-Crescent B8

Johnson Signs $817 Million Projects Bill

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson has signed a bill authorizing future work on water projects to cost nearly $817 million.

The new law increases authorizations for 10 river basins and also authorizes five new projects.

Basin authorizations, totaling $600 million, are sufficient to permit work to continue on individual projects within the basins for two years. In some of the river basins, notably the Ohio and Arkansas, work had been threatened by shutdowns for lack of authority to spend appropriated funds.

Basin authorization increases provided by the bill include: Arkansas River, $157 million; Missouri River $96 million; Ohio River $150 million; Upper Mississippi River $11 million.

Boils Develop From Staph Germ in System

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
I have been told that boils definitely come from hospitals. Even though persons employed at hospitals do not have them, they can be carriers. Is this true?

MRS. M. B. This is what you might call a one-per-cent truth. Anyway, a grain of truth, but that's all.

Boils don't "come from hospitals." They come from a germ—the staphylococcus germ. The germ can be anywhere, including hospitals. It can be carried by anyone, including people who work in hospitals.

So let's not oversimplify things, because that's deceptive. Let's just look at the facts. People had boils long before there were hospitals. Remember Job in the Bible?

Hospitals, being full of sick people, have to be constantly on guard against the germ carried by patients. Let's say that a perfectly healthy nurse may encounter this germ. She doesn't show any sign of illness. She is healthy and rugged enough to combat it.

Yet she—or you, or anyone—may carry it. We know enough about the germ to realize that it often lingers sleepily in our noses. If, occasionally, the germ is wafted toward someone who, for one reason or another, is ready to harbor an infection, then it suddenly thrives. It may result in boils, or the germ may appear in some other manifestation. But that's how it works.

Untrue Statement
So saying that "boils definitely come from hospitals" is not more true than to say that boils "definitely" come from your living room, an office, a bus, or the corner drug store.

When the germ insinuates itself into a sweat gland or pore, or down around the root of a hair, it begins to multiply. This is another way to say that an infection begins. If your body readily conquers the germ, then the net result is nothing but a pimple or "hick-ey" or something. If the germ gets more of a foothold, it becomes a "boil." Or several boils may merge into a "carbuncle." At worst, the germ may penetrate the blood stream and you have "blood poisoning."

Generally, the staph germ is a common, ever-present annoyance, but only occasionally becoming perilous. Other germs (such as streptococcus) are not as universal, but are more savage when they do appear.

Should we be careful and watch out for the staph germ? Yes, certainly! Where? Everywhere. How? Mainly by observing the ordinary rules of health: Good food, adequate sleep, exercise, cleanliness. You may unknowingly carry the germ into a hospital or anywhere else. But try not to pass it on to the patient you are visiting. Don't drink out of his water glass. Don't paw him. Don't breathe in his face. Don't sit on his bed.

Just observe the same and simple rules of what some of us used to call "hygiene." In fact, some of us still do call it that. And it makes sense.

Constant Cracking
Dear Dr. Molner: I asked you some time ago about constant cracking in the back of my neck and never got an answer. Does one have to pay to get a question answered?

MRS. R. A. S. No, nobody pays to get an answer here. I have frequently discussed wry neck and the cracking of it and other joints, explaining that changes in the bone of an arthritic nature are the likeliest cause, but warning also that nobody can give a dependable answer without an examination. X-ray of the neck and spine is usually necessary for a diagnosis.

Note to F.G.M.: A fatty tumor does not need to be removed on its own account; removal is done because it is (1) painful; (2) so big it is a nuisance; (3) unsightly.

Are you bothered with ringing in the ears? If so, write to Dr. Molner in care of this newspaper for the booklet, "Ear Noises—Their Causes and Cures," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible. (Copyright, 1964)

A New Best Seller . . . TREASURE ISLAND

The story that has all Appleton talking

You don't have to read between the lines to understand this story of savings, nor do you have to be a professor to understand this lesson in food economics.

Our pricing policy in the food department is simplicity itself. We just price each item as low as possible — in many cases as low as the Wisconsin law will allow — and we keep each item at that low price until our costs change, at which time we lower or raise the price as the case may be. We know that this pricing policy assures you of a lower "Cash-Register Tape Total" on your grocery order.

To check our pricing policy, we periodically send shoppers to buy merchandise and check prices in other Supermarkets. During our latest check, we sent shoppers to buy identical orders in three other leading supermarkets in Appleton, and we ran a fourth identical order through our Treasure Island check-out. You can see for yourself — savings as much as $4.32 on this one order alone, at Treasure Island.

A complete list of the items shopped, the names of the stores, plus notarized actual cash-register tapes are available for your inspection at the manager's office of the Treasure Island Food Department.

Seeing is believing when you can save $4.32 on a $39.29 order. It is also easy to see how the average family can save as much as $200.00 a year, at the Treasure Island Food Department.

You can save as much as 10% by doing all

Versatile Lamb in Many Delicious Guises

Thursday, January 2, 1964 Appleton Post-Crescent C1

The French Have a Word for this savory concoction. It's "pot au feu," a delectable combination of meat, broth and vegetables. Literally translated, the word means "pot on the fire."

Stuffed Rib Chops Dijonnais make an impressive, colorful dish that features winter lamb in true gourmet style.

BY LILLIAN MACKESY
Post-Crescent Food Editor

Meals hearty and hot are welcome now that the sub-zero cold of winter has gripped the Fox Cities. The best way to combat those thermometer blues is to serve an abundance of protein, vitamins and minerals in attractive dishes. Serve piping hot to please the inner man but also serve nutritious foods for added stamina and resistance to winter colds and other troubles. One of the most versatile of meats this time of year is the tender, young winter lamb now available in valley markets.

There are as many cuts available as there are budget sizes to pocketbooks, ranging from the familiar leg of lamb to chops, riblets, steaks and shoulder. The American Lamb Council says that the best way to use nutritious lamb is to learn the different cuts available, the proper methods of meat cookery for each one, then collect the recipes that show all the various cuts to their best advantage.

The easiest method of identifying meat cuts is by studying bone structure. The T-shaped back and rib bone characterize rib and loin chops . . . these are tender and need very little time to prepare. They are best cooked by dry heat method such as broiling. It's really a matter of logic . . . the location of the meat usually indicates the best method of cookery. Rib and loin chops come from the back of the animal . . . the area where the muscles of the animal are exercised the least.

Economical lamb shoulder is made up of more exercised muscles. Yet, when cut into cubes and simmered gently with a moist method of meat cookery, the meat becomes tender and full of flavor.

Important to flavor and appearance of lamb shoulder meat in stews, soups and meat pies is the initial browning step. A rule of thumb followed by the Lamb Council's home economists is to dip the cubes of lamb in seasoned, unbleached flour (or shake together in paper bag) until meat is well coated. Then brown meat on all sides in heated shortening over medium (NOT HOT) heat. Add the liquid, cover tightly and simmer slowly over low heat until lamb is tender.

So with this advice from the best source possible—the kitchens of the Lamb Council's home economists—we give you some wonderful lamb recipes just right for frigid Wisconsin weather. They are appetite pleasers and morale builders to fit the calendar. Note the two kinds of stews . . . one with parsley dumplings and the other an unusual festive stew that combines fruits as well as vegetables with the meat.

SAVORY LAMB STEW WITH PARSLEY DUMPLINGS

1½ pounds lamb shoulder cubed
Seasoned unbleached flour
2 tablespoons shortening
2 cups water
4 medium onions, sliced
6 medium carrots, sliced
6 medium potatoes, sliced
½ teaspoon rosemary
Salt, pepper to taste
2 cups sifted, unbleached flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
¼ cup shortening
1 cup milk
Coat lamb with seasoned flour. Heat shortening; add lamb and cook until lightly browned on all sides. Add water. Cover; cook over low heat 45 minutes. Add onions, carrots, potatoes, rosemary and salt and pepper. Cover; cook until vegetables are tender, stirring occasionally.

Sift flour, baking powder and one teaspoon salt together. Add parsley. Cut in shortening. Add milk and blend. Drop by tablespoons into lamb mixture. Cook, uncovered, 10 minutes. Cover and cook 10 minutes.

SARATOGA LAMB CHOPS PIQUANT

6 lamb chops, 1½ inches thick
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup water
¼ cup dry white wine
¼ cup wine vinegar
¼ teaspoon crushed thyme
1 bay leaf
¼ teaspoon crushed red pepper

3 tablespoons dry sherry wine
1 egg, beaten
½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
Salt and Pepper
Using sharp knife, make slit from bone side between rib ume is reduced to one-half. Add sauce to lamb chops; cook 10 minutes longer.

STUFFED LAMB RIB CHOPS DIJONNAIS
6 double rib lamb chops
3 ounces canned mushrooms, sliced
½ teaspoon salt

Entire Neighborhood Helping Stricken Boy

BY WILLIAM S. STEVENS
ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The parents of 3-year-old Johnny Ward are approaching the new year with hope.

The hope springs from Johnny's progress in recovering from the effects of encephalitis, a disease that damages brain cells. Sharing this hope with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ward of suburban Delmar, are the Wards' neighbors, who have devoted their time to the rehabilitation project responsible for Johnny's progress.

Because of their efforts, the cheerful little boy's abilities have improved at three times the normal rate in two months, doctors say. His eyes focus now and—to his mother's delight—he cries.

Stricken As Baby
Johnny was stricken about two years ago. He did not learn many of a baby's normal reflex motions.

Under the direction of the Philadelphia (Pa.) Rehabilitation Clinic a program called "cross-patterning" was begun by which Johnny is helped to follow patterns of reflexive activity that would have been governed by the damaged brain section.

In two months, Johnny's mental development advanced from that of a 14-month-old to that of a 20-month-old.

Johnny wears a special type of wooden platform skate that is designed to keep him from walking. Doctors think it is more beneficial for him to crawl.

Forced to Creep

He has to be forced to learn how to creep. His exercises consist primarily of manipulation of his arms, legs and head in a creeping or swimming motion.

Three persons are needed to help in doing the basic exercise. That's where the neighbors came in.

The Wards, who moved to Delmar from Lancaster, Pa., last January, have two other children. Mrs. Ward is expecting a baby and Ward's work as a salesman takes him away from home much of the time.

Mrs. Ward invited the neighbors for coffee last July and explained the problem.

Neighbors Help

Four times a day, at 9 a.m., 1, 5, and 9 p.m., at least three neighbors drop in to help with Johnny's exercises.

Mrs. Edward Romanzo, who has four children, the youngest 8, said: "We got excited when he ate this first meal by himself. We just come in when we can."

Ann's Definition of Maturity

Reprinted by Special Request

BY ANN LANDERS 445 letters. One of my letters contained a clipping from your column. It was your definition of maturity. My husband is home now and we are starting our marriage again—this time on the right foot. He told me your column on maturity gave him real insight into his own life and made him realize where and why he had failed. He read it so many times he memorized it. I might add that column is tattered and worn, but he still carries it with him.

Thank you, Ann, for helping someone very dear to me—and God bless you.—A Very Grateful Woman

Dear Friend: Thank you for your generous expression of gratitude. The most rewarding part of this work is knowing that I can occasionally provide someone with solace, strength or self-understanding.

Since the column your husband is now tattered and worn, I am herewith re-printing my definition of maturity—especially for him.

Maturity is many things. First it is the ability to base a judgment on the Big Picture—The Long Haul. It means being able to pass up the fun-for-the-minute and select the course of action which will pay off later. One of the characteristics of infancy is the "I want it now approach." Grown-up people can wait.

Maturity is the ability to stick with a project or a situation until it is finished. The adult who changing friends, and changing mates—is immature. He cannot stick it out because he has not grown up. Everything seems to turn sour after awhile.

Maturity is the capacity to face unpleasantness, frustration, discomfort and defeat without complaint or collapse. The mature person knows he can't have everything his own way. He is able to defer to circumstances, to other people—and to time.

Maturity is the ability to live up to your responsibilities, and this means being dependable. It means keeping your word. And dependability equates with personal integrity. Do you mean what you say—and say what you mean?

The world is filled with people who can't be counted on. People who never seem to come through in the clutches. People who break promises and substitute alibis for performance. They show up late—or not at all. They are confused and disorganized. Their lives are a chaotic maze of unfinished business.

Maturity is the ability to make a decision and stand by it. Immature people spend their lives exploring endless possibilities and then do nothing. Action requires courage. And there is no maturity without courage.

Maturity is the ability to harness your abilities and your energies and to do more than is expected. The mature person refuses to settle for mediocrity. He would rather aim high and miss the mark than aim low—and make it.

Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers and Sex" ($2.95), is now available at your book store. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (Copyright, 1964)

A Lovelier You

By Mary Sue Miller

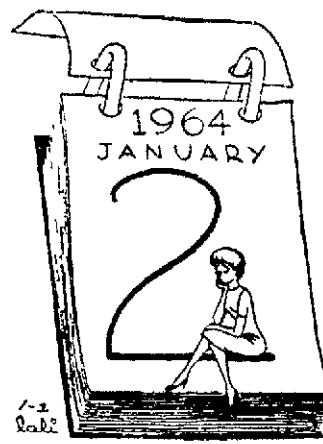

Well, it's one of those day-after days. How do you feel? Tired . . . let down . . . lousy . . . fat? Having any of those problems, you're in good company. Most of us have one, some of us have all.

How can we get in gear again, short of a winter vacation? It depends on one's symptoms.

For a healthy person, extra sleep is the answer to fatigue. A nine-hour snooze for several nights in a row could do it.

The let-down feeling vanishes when you turn your attention to some refreshing interest. It could be anything from those books you have meant to read to that table you meant to re-finish. Just plotting a new course brings a new outlook.

If you're in a sluggish state—logy to the point where you don't want to move or think—you need stimulation. The simplest way to get it is by taking a brisk half-hour walk every day for a week. Any form of exercise, however, is a good cobweb chaser. That brings us to the fat problem. And you already know the solution. How much dieting you may have to do is cued by your scale. If it shows you have gained only a few pounds, you can take them off in ten days by foregoing starchy vegetables and sweets, by limiting your in-

OPEN MONDAY, FRIDAY 'TIL 9 P.M.

By Dolly Martin

Remember the story of Pinocchio, the little puppet who became alive and grew in the most peculiar way? Well, if you are telling your little sister or brother the story, be sure to point out that in fairy tales everything is only make - believe. Don't use them to teach a lesson. You wouldn't want to ruin the story by having them believe their nose will keep growing every time they tell a fib, or that the goblin will gobble them up if they don't eat their dinner, or that they will be swallowed by a whale if they aren't obedient. Let them enjoy the fairy tale for what it is. Set an example by showing them the gold star you will paste in their book if they help pick up their toys and not cry every-time mother and daddy go out for the evening. You can promise to read more fairy tales if they behave. Then the youngsters will consider you their favorite baby-sitter.

Stuffed Celery

Ever use a mixture of cream cheese, tuna and mayonnaise as a stuffing for celery stalks? Add a seasoning of onion to the tuna mixture if you like. Cut the stuffed celery into finger-size wedges.

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

IT'S THE SINGLE GIRL WHO READS CONFESSION MAGAZINES! TRUE ☐ FALSE ☐

False. Most of the women who read such magazines as "True Confessions" are already married. A survey shows that more than half the readers of this magazine are housewives with children under six years of age. One in four of these mothers has children under two. Five per cent had attended college. One in three owned their own homes, seven out of 10 have telephones, and a similar number own sewing machines. In other words, women who read confession magazines appear to be established housewives in homes of their own.

Does dreaming of a loss mean anything?

Yes _____ No _____

Yes, it probably does. One of our readers writes that she recently dreamed that she lost her purse and that she actually had forgotten to take her purse with her when she left the office on at least two occasions. She is a very careful person and has not lost anything for years, so she is puzzled. Our best guess is that she either does not like this particular purse or, more likely, she is afraid she will lose something very important to her — her job, perhaps — that her purse symbolizes for her.

Remove Streaks Of Rust

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: There are a number of rust streaks under nails in the redwood screen-wall at our front entrance. How can these discolorations be removed?

A: To remove the rust streaks: Apply a solution of four ounces of oxalic acid crystals (poison) in one gallon of water (mixed in a nonmetallic container) to the discolorations, using a soft brush or cloth. Repeat treatment, if necessary. Be sure to wear rubber gloves to protect the hands and avoid splatters on skin or eyes, while working.

To prevent future streaks, if possible, recommend replacing present nails with aluminum or stainless steel or hot-dipped galvanized ones, recommended for outdoor use on redwood.

Q: The wood sills on our kitchen windows have dark stains from condensation forming on the glass and running down. We installed an exhaust fan in the kitchen and no longer have the moisture on the windows. How can we remove the dark stains on the sills?

A: Remove the present finish down to bare wood. Then apply a prepared wood bleach to the stained area, available at paint dealers, following label directions carefully. Apply a matching wood stain if the bleached areas are too light in color after the bleaching. Refinish with varnish or shellac, as desired, to match rest of frame finish.

Today's Etiquette

AVOID WAGGING TONGUES

Dear Louise: I have never been married but have a seven year old child. I am now 24 and am engaged. Our wedding will be in three months. I am wondering if it would be correct for me to wear a white wedding gown and veil. Would it be in good taste to have a maid of honor, four bridesmaids, a best man and four ushers?

Louise Davis Answers:

Why encourage wagging tongues by having more than one attendant each and by wearing a white wedding gown with a veil? You would be a wise girl to have a very small wedding attended by the immediate families and a very few intimate friends. I suggest that you wear a simple afternoon dress, also a hat if the wedding is to be in church.

...and a million steps from now, you'll love them even more!

Engaged Pair Plans June Wedding Rite

MENASHA — Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Ankam, 825 Jefferson St., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Elizabeth, and Robert Paul Laemmrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Laemmrich, 405 Appleton St.

The bride-elect attends Lawrence College Conservatory of Music, Appleton, and is employed at the Neenah Foundry Co. Neenah Mr. Laemmrich served four years in the Navy and attended Milwaukee School of Engineering, Milwaukee. He is employed at the Wisconsin Telephone Co., Madison.

A June 20 wedding date is planned.

Ill Mother Can't Cope With 10-Year-Old Problem Child

BY DR. EVE JONES

Dear Dr. Jones: What causes my 10-year-old girl to be filthy and careless at home and with her school work? I know she's capable of good work because she does very well at Sunday School and with her violin and piano lessons. She can't be completely immature because she is a very good Girl Scout. But her room and drawers are a mess. And her teacher says she is untidy at school, too. Yelling, punishing her and talking quietly with her are to no avail. I think she just figures she can take advantage of me because I have an illness that makes me uncoordinated and it's hard for me to get around. She knows my illness affects my thinking processes at times, too, so I suppose she thinks she doesn't have to have any respect for me.

MRS. E. R. Your illness probably is causing her reaction, but not for the reasons you suggest. She's probably very frightened to watch you lose control and she may be worried that your illness will take you away from her. She probably feels resentment, too, that you aren't healthy like the other mothers she sees.

Ordinarily, a school child who doesn't carry out her responsibilities for herself at home and at school shouldn't be "spread thin" by taking music lessons, etc. But these may be important sources of satisfaction and comfort for your daughter. So until you know more about what's causing her reaction, you shouldn't make any drastic changes.

To learn what's troubling her and how to help her, take her to the clinic whose name I'm sending you for personal psychological evaluation and recommendations. And be certain to discuss this with the M.D. who's treating you, too. He may be able to help you to develop better ways of keeping control over yourself so that your daughter's behavior doesn't disorient you.

Dr. Jones replies personally to every letter she receives from her readers. Send your questions, with a stamped, self-addressed envelope, to Dr. Eve Jones, care of this newspaper

Word Awaited From Byrnes on Primary Race

Congressman Due To Announce Plans
In Next Few Days

WASHINGTON (AP)—A decision is expected from Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Wis., within a few days on whether he will take a favorite son role in the competition for the Republican presidential nomination this year.

"I have to make the decision soon, but I have not made it yet," Byrnes said today. Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R-Wis., who early in 1963 started the move to make Byrnes a favorite son candidate, said simply: "I am not going to try to influence him. But I do hope that John Byrnes runs."

Party Unity Aim
The aim of party leaders in the state backing a favorite son part for Byrnes is to avoid a split in top ranks in the Wisconsin presidential primary April 7 and to send an uncommitted, 30-member delegation to the Republican national convention in July.

Byrnes said another factor is that the Wisconsin primary comes so early in the year that several real contenders for the nomination may not be in a position to announce so early.

Another drawback to an open primary, Byrnes said, is that there is no party registration for it. Thus, with President Johnson likely to be unopposed for the Democratic nomination, there will be nothing to prevent Democrats from flocking to ballot in the GOP primary.

Problem in Early Primary
"There are great advantages in a primary system," Byrnes said. "Particularly where there are contests on both tickets. But there are occasions where an early primary does not make possible a decision based on all candidates whose names may be submitted to the convention. Laird said that he has been personally assured by both Sen. Barry Goldwater and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller that they would not enter the Wisconsin primary if Byrnes runs as a favorite son candidate."

New Hampshire First
If Byrnes declines the role, the Goldwater and Rockefeller commitments presumably would not hold. Goldwater plans to announce Friday whether he will seek his party's presidential nomination.

There is general belief that the Arizona senator and the New York governor will enter the New Hampshire primary, the first in the nation, on March 10. By the time the results of this contest are known, it would be too late for the winner or loser, or any other candidates, to enter the Wisconsin lists. The filing deadline for the Wisconsin primary is March 6.

Byrnes gave no clue to what his decision will be. He said he has been discussing all facets of the situation with Republican figures in and out of the state but so far has not come up with an answer.

BY JAMES MANGAN

DALLAS (AP) — Lee Harvey Oswald's widow has confirmed that her husband told her he was implicated in the shooting at former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, her business adviser, said today.

Mrs. Marina Oswald also confirmed a report that Oswald left her a note of instructions the day a sniper shot at Walker. Oswald's note said he might be arrested.

Jim Martin, the business adviser, said she gave the following account of what happened last April 10, the day a high-powered rifle bullet barely missed Walker in his home:

Left Home Early
Oswald left their home early in the evening, not saying where he was going. He hadn't returned at 11 p.m., and Mrs. Oswald began to worry. Then she discovered a note from her husband, written in Russian, in her bedroom. Oswald's note said he might be gone for some time, or he might be arrested. It told her the location of the county jail in Dallas and gave the number of Oswald's post office box, along with the key.

Expecting Check
It said he was expecting a check from a former employer (apparently a coffee company) in New Orleans where Oswald worked before coming to Dallas, and advised her how to get in touch with the Soviet consul.

Oswald finally returned, very late. He was white and shaken.

Under questioning from his wife, he said he was involved in an attempt to shoot Walker.

After an all-night argument, he promised he never would do such a thing again. Mrs. Oswald told him she had hidden the note and would turn it over to the police if he ever failed to keep his promise.

She had secreted the note in a cookbook. The FBI took possession of it shortly after Oswald was arrested Nov. 22 in the assassination of President Kennedy. Oswald himself was later slain.

Martin said today that Mrs.

Slayer Uses Ax to Kill 2; Attempts To Strangle Girl

SMALLWOOD, N.Y. (AP)—The killer, ax in hand, waited in a closet.

He heard his victims return home late from New Year's Eve parties, waited for them to finish coffee and go to bed.

At dawn he crept into a bedroom and chopped Joseph McAdams, 49, to death as he slept.

Oswald believes her husband was just sick, something was wrong with him."

The shot was fired through a window of Walker's home.

The bullet narrowly missed Walker and imbedded itself in a wall. Police said a slight movement of Walker's head possibly saved his life. He suffered minor cuts from fragments of the window.

Next he went upstairs, where McAdams' daughter and a girl friend, Judith Meddough, 19, were sleeping in twin beds. He killed Miss Meddough with his ax and strangled Florence McAdams, 20, into unconsciousness, leaving her for dead.

Then he called police. State police say that the account they pieced together after an anonymous telephone call and then one from Miss McAdams, who told them in a panic-stricken voice that the killer was standing on the front lawn.

As police sped to the scene they spotted a man on a road near the McAdams house. They said he was Frank S. Scaramuzza, 20, 24, an Army private from nearby Monticello, N.Y. He was arrested and held on a charge of first-degree murder.

State Police Sgt. Leslie Vincenz said Miss McAdams had broken her engagement to Scaramuzza several months ago.

Popsicles and Icicles' Theme Of Xavier Art Club's Soc Hop

High school students danced to the theme of "Popsicles and Icicles" at the Xavier's Art Club Soc Hop Friday evening at St. Mary School gymnasium. Giant-size icicles were hung everywhere and a large, decorated Christmas tree formed a centerpiece in the middle of the floor.

Students from all high schools were invited to the Soc Hop which took place from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Refreshments were served.

Proceeds from the event will be used for art materials for club members. Miss Ann Elliott is faculty moderator of the group.

The Snowy White Icicles, above, form a canopy above dancers at the high school Soc Hop. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree was in the center of the gymnasium at St. Mary School where the Xavier Art Club's Soc Hop was held. one entry do the work of several. A fine example was provided in the Global Par Hands, played all over the world a few months ago.

South would like to get to dummy to lead spades and diamonds a few times. Unfortunately, the only entry to dummy is the ten of hearts. How does South make that entry do the work of two or three?

East begins by taking the king and ace of clubs. He then leads a low club, and South ruffs with a high trump, saving the three of hearts as a way of getting to dummy later.

West drops the queen of clubs on the third trick, thus making it clear that East has all the other missing high cards for his opening bid of one notrump. South knows that East holds the king-queen of spades and the king of diamonds.

Postpone Trumps
South cannot afford to draw trumps at once. After ruffing the third club declarer should lead the jack of spades.

East wins with the queen of spades and leads a fourth club. South ruffs again with a high trump and leads the three of trumps to dummy's ten. (If declarer fails to cash one or two high trumps first, there is no objection.)

Having arrived in dummy, declarer leads the ten of spades through East. If East covers, South wins and gets back to the nine of spades. If East plays a low spade, dummy holds the lead with the ten.

Either way, declarer needs no further spade plays. He can switch to a diamond, winning a finesse with the queen in his own hand. The ace of diamonds then happens to drop the king, and South is safe.

lamb; add water and bouillon. Simmer 30 minutes. Add green pepper; simmer 15 minutes longer. Remove from heat; pour off broth to prepare Dill Sauce, recipe given below. Pour Dill Sauce over Lamb Riblets and heat to serving temperature.

DILL SAUCE

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
Reserved lamb broth
½ cup vinegar
3 tablespoons chopped dill

Melt butter in saucepan; blend in flour, sugar, salt and pepper. Add water to reserved broth to make one and one-half cups liquid. Gradually add broth and water to ingredients in saucepan, stirring constantly. Add vinegar and dill; cook sauce until thickened, stirring constantly.

FESTIVE LAMB STEW

2 pounds cubed lamb shoulder
1 medium onion, sliced
1 medium tomato, cut in wedges
1 medium green pepper, sliced
¼ teaspoon coriander seed
3 quarts water
8 ounces canned kernel corn, drained
1 pound pared and chopped white potatoes
1½ pounds pared and chopped yams
1 green banana, peeled and chopped
8 ounces canned tomato sauce
1 cup cooked peas
2 ripe bananas, peeled and chopped
1 cup sifted, unbleached flour
Salt, pepper to taste

Combine lamb, onion, tomato, green pepper, coriander seed and water. Heat to boiling.

are tender.

Combine flour, salt and pepper; blend. Remove two cups liquid from stew. Slowly stir into flour mixture until smooth. Stir flour mixture into stew. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until stew is thickened.

LAMB CURRY

¼ cup salad oil
2 large onions, coarsely chopped
1½ cups coarsely chopped celery
1 cup seedless raisins
1 cup water

4 cups diced cooked lamb
1½ cups lamb stock or chicken bouillon
1½ cups chopped green apples
¼ cup curry powder
Hot cooked rice

Heat oil; add onions and celery; cook until tender. Add raisins, water, diced lamb and one cup stock to celery-onion mixture. Cook covered for 35 minutes over low heat. Add apples, curry powder and remaining half-cup stock. Mix well; cook, covered, about 10 minutes or until apples are tender. Serve over hot cooked rice.

Nebraska Edges Auburn, 13-7, In Orange Bowl

Dennis Claridge Sets Record With 68-Yard Touchdown Scamper

BY BEN FUNK
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Nebraska's big Cornhuskers, playing before an eager audience—of American and National Football League scouts, muscled their way to a 13-7 victory over smaller Auburn in the Orange Bowl Game New Year's Day.

And when the final whistle blew professional contracts were waved in the faces of numerous players—especially the pro-size Cornhuskers—who had been forbidden until after the game from entering into nego-

Illini Score Third 'Rose' Win in Row

Rally in Second Half for 17-7 Victory; Grabowski Shows Way

BY JERRY LISKA
PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Rugged Big Ten champion Illinois still owns a perfect Rose Bowl record, riding to success on the shoulders of a brawny games.

It was Jim Grabowski, a 207-pound sophomore who did it Wednesday, leading Illinois to a 17-7 come-from-behind triumph of Big Six titlist Washington.

To 100,000 fans, sundrenched in 85-degree weather and countless TV fans, perhaps the first quarter injury of Washington quarterback Bill Douglas might have been the determining factor in the puncturing of Huskie Coach Jim Owens' Rose Bowl charm.

It was not a game of spectacular offense and it had a lot of errors.

There were 10 fumbles, five by each team, and three stolen Washington passes. But it also had Grabowski ripping through the stubborn Huskies for 125 yards on 23 carries.

Wins Award

That alone wore down Washington, which led 7-3 at half-time, and won Grabowski the outstanding player of the game award given by the Helms foundation.

Assistant Coach Bill Tate won the same honor for his hero's role in Illinois 40-7 Rose Bowl rout of Stanford in the 1952 game. Fullback Tate carried 20 times for 150 yards in that one-sided contest.

But Tate acknowledged in the gleeful Illini dressing room later:

"Grabowski was better than I was and maybe better than Julie Rykovich was in the 1947 Rose Bowl game."

In the 1947 Illinois 45-14 belting of UCLA, fullback Rykovich and Buddy Young shared outstanding player honors.

Douglas' severely wrenched left knee, coming after he guided Washington 41-yards on an opening drive, brought in still rusty quarterback Bill Siler.

Although a regular in the 1962 season, Siler had a tough time of it, with three interceptions, two of which were snagged by defensive star George Donnelly.

Warriors Drop 85-67 Verdict To Louisville

Marquette Hits 15 Strfaight From Line But Loses Sixth Tilt

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Marquette's young basketball team was dead-accurate from the free throw line but was a New Year's Night plaything for Louisville's powerful Cardinals who took an easy 85-67 victory.

The Warriors, who have yet to win on the road this season, suffered their sixth loss in nine starts. Louisville, with its regulars playing only about half the game, won its third in a row and is 6-5.

Marquette hit 15 straight free throws without a miss, getting all 14 tried in the first half. The Warriors finished by making all but five of 26 shots from the free line. Louisville got 17 of 18, missing one shot in the first half.

The Cardinals hit 52 per cent of their field goal shots in the first half, putting in 21 of 40 attempts, as they raced to a 44-22 lead with just under six minutes remaining. The starters were pulled out at this point and played only about 10 minutes of the second half, which started with Louisville in front 54-36.

Started Rally

The Warriors started a rally of sorts in the second half. With John Stone and Tom Flynn carrying the scoring burden, Mar-

Texas Offense Sparkles in 28-6 Trouncing of Middies

Duke Carlisle Leads Longhorns To Satisfying Win Before 75,504

BY JIM BECKER
DALLAS (AP)—Smirking and word-eating were the major activities in the vicinity of the Cotton Bowl today.

The satisfied smile was pasted on the face of national champion Texas.

If there was any doubt—and Navy, for one, had some—that the Longhorns were the No. 1 college football team in the land, the Texans removed it swiftly with a 28-6 trouncing of the Middies Wednesday.

The score might well have been worse.

The word-eating was not completely confined to Navy, although there haven't been so many red faces around the fleet since they laughed at Gen. Billy Mitchell when he said he could sink battleships with airplanes.

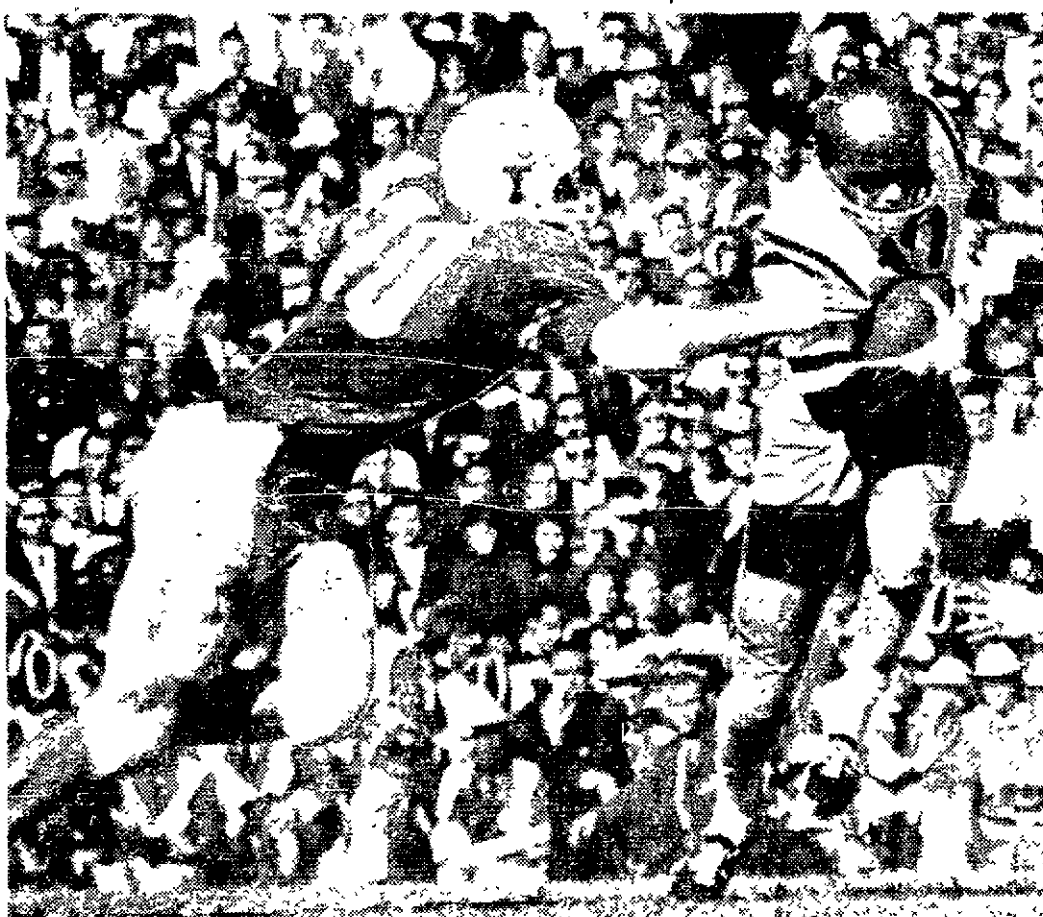

There were those who had called the Texas offense: "Left tackle, right tackle—and punt."

And the ones who said that Texas "doesn't beat you, it bores you to death."

Resourceful Offense

Coach Darrell Royal's Texas team came up with a fabulously resourceful offense, guided by a quarterback named Duke Carlisle.

Resourceful Offense

Coach Darrell Royal's Texas team came up with a fabulously resourceful offense, guided by a quarterback named Duke Carlisle.

Carlisle, whose real name is Emmett Augustus Carlisle III, took Texas 78 yards in six plays from the opening kickoff. That stunned the No. 2 ranked Middies almost as much as the way it was done.

Carlisle sent his runners into the line twice and then ran for 19 yards. Three plays later he threw to wingback Phil Harris on a play that covered 58 yards for a touchdown.

In the second quarter, Carlisle passed on first down from his own 37, again to Harris, again for a touchdown.

Then the Texas defense detached the football from Navy's Jolly Roger Staubach on the Navy 34, and Carlisle took the Longhorns in again. He scored this one himself on a keeper from nine yards out.

21-0 At Half

That made it 21-0 at the half and the 75,504 people sitting in 45 degree sunshine might as well have staged their game-end traffic jam early.

Carlisle played a little less than three quarters and established a Cotton Bowl record for total offense, 267 yards. He passed for 213, and was the team's leading rusher with 54.

Then Tommy Wade, the No. 2 quarterback, took over and engineered another score.

Hayes Runs :09.1 Century On Wet Track

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The nine second 100 yard dash still eludes Bob Hayes, although he showed on a rain-sodden track Wednesday that he's hot on the trail.

The husky Florida A&M junior duplicated before 5,000 fans the 9.1 second dash, submitted for a world record, which he ran last year at St. Louis. Considering the fact that rain had pelted University of Miami's cinder path for two days, few had expected Hayes to approach that speed at the Orange Bowl Track and Field Meet.

Dick Hill, Hayes' coach, confidently predicted "any day now he'll make it in nine seconds flat."

Tail wind blew more than 4.46 miles per hour — the limit for record consideration even if Hayes had been clocked in 9.0.

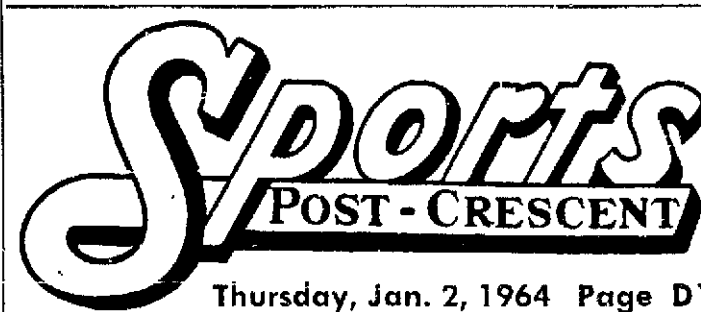

Hayes, who also is a football star, won the 220 yard dash in a startling :20.1. This was faster than Hayes' :20.5 here last year but cannot be offered for record purposes because it was run on a straightaway, instead of on a turn.

A battle between two top rivals and another team's effort to keep its unfinished record intact will feature Friday night's set of four Mid-Eastern Conference games.

Menasha and Neenah, Twin City rivals, will hook up in what shapes up as a close contest at the Menasha High School gym. Menasha currently is undefeated in league play and shares the lead with Kimberly.

The Papermakers will tangle on their home floor with what could be a troublesome Clintonville quintet.

Other league games will have Shawano invading Two Rivers and Kaukauna travels to New London.

3-Game Streak

Menasha will be trying to break a three-game winning streak that the Rockets hold over the Bluejays. Neenah took both M-E games last season, the first by a 68-50 score and the second by a 67-52 margin. In tournament play last season, Neenah recorded a 77-66 victory.

The last victory for Menasha over Neenah was in tournament play of 1962. The Rockets, who had built up an extensive victory string and were highly ranked in the state, dropped a 64-63 contest to the fired-up Bluejays.

Menasha has been idle since its 66-61 victory over Kaukauna prior to the holidays. Neenah played a game Saturday night, bowing to Appleton in a non-conference tilt.

49th Victory

Coach Ole Jorgensen of Neenah is searching for his 49th victory of his long coaching career.

The Bluejays are expected to be stronger physically for the Neenah game. Barry Conway, who has not seen any action this season because of a broken hand, may return to duty. Dick Slattery, who missed the Kaukauna game because of an injury, also is expected to be ready Friday.

Kimberly's potent Papermakers, who nearly stumbled against Shawano, will have to deal with a veteran-laden Clintonville team. Kimberly was forced into an overtime before winning 44-43 over the Indians.

Kaukauna and New London both will be trying to vacate the league cellar when they clash at New London. The Ghosts have better offensive and defensive marks than the Bulldogs but New London is always a tough competitor on its home floor.

Shawano will be out to stay in the first division against Two Rivers. After their close battle with Kimberly, the Indians will rule the favorite but Two Rivers has the second best offensive average in the league despite its 1-3 record.

No one could blame the Chicago Black Hawks, the National Hockey League leaders, if they could start to think the lowly New York Rangers have their number.

The fifth-place Rangers beat the Black Hawks 5-2 Wednesday night for their second consecutive victory over Chicago. New York built a 4-0 lead before Chicago's denied goalie Jacques Plante's cage.

The loss, coupled with Montreal's 3-3 tie with Boston, cut Chicago's lead to four points. Rookie Johnny Ferguson's goal with seven minutes left in the game gave Montreal the tie.

Unidentified Witness Being Sought Former Illinois Grid Star Fatally Shot

CHICAGO (AP) — Law enforcement officials in nearby Du Page County today continued their investigation into the fatal shooting of a former Uni-

Investigators, who called the shooting accidental, are searching for an unidentified witness to help clear up conflicting accounts of the slaying in a suburban bowling alley washroom.

Robert Winters, police chief in suburban Willowbrook, said his service revolver fired accidentally as he tried to break up a fight between Parrilli and an unidentified man.

After Argument

The quarrel in the bowling alley, which is partly owned by Mike Ditka, Chicago Bears end, reportedly started after an argument over Sunday's National Football League championship game between the Bears and the New York Giants, won by the Bears.

The Du Page County state's attorney's office said a grand jury would be asked to consider whether Winters was guilty of either involuntary manslaughter or reckless conduct. An inquest was continued to Jan. 20.

Chief Winters said his pistol discharged as he used it to club the head of Bears fullback Joe Marconi. The bullet hit the 6-foot, 228-pound Parrilli in the head and he died almost instantly.

Winters and Sgt. Stanley Lachta said they went to the washroom to quell a fist fight between Parrilli and the unidentified man who left in the confusion after the shooting.

"Winters told me things were squared away in the washroom when Marconi came rushing in," said State's Atty. William J. Bauer. "Winters said Marconi knocked Sgt. Lachta aside and it was then that he used the gun."

Eight stitches were required to close a gash on Marconi's head.

Marconi disputed the Winters' version.

Alabama Defeats Mississippi in Sugar Bowl, 12-7

BY MIKE BARRON
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Defense and determination added up to a 12-7 Sugar Bowl football upset and a prayer of Thanksgiving for Alabama. The Rebels' defense was the difference. "Defense was the difference," Bryant said Wednesday after his Crimson Tide held Mississippi to its lowest score since the Rebels were tied 0-0 by Memphis State last September. Defense — and senior Tom Davis' record four field goals — and Alabama 12 in the fourth period.

Bryant halted the revelry in the Alabama dressing room to a five-yard scoring pass to back give a quiet prayer of thanks for the victory which handed Mississippi its first loss in 20 games. He and his players knelt to pray and then sprang up with loud cheers.

The 21-year-old Davis kicked three point of 31, 22, 46 and 48 yards to account for all Alabama points. First his 46-yard kick and then his 48-yarder set

Davis Voted 'Outstanding' In Sugar Bowl

Alabama Senior Sets Record With Four Field Goals

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — An injury in high school which stopped Tim Davis from playing regularly didn't end his football career, but Mississippi wishes it had.

The 170-pound senior kicked four field goals, accounting for all of Alabama's points, in the 12-7 upset of Mississippi in the Sugar Bowl Wednesday. He set a major bowl record with a 46-yard kick, then broke it with a 48-yarder.

Sports writers voted the 21-year-old Columbus, Ga., native, the game's outstanding individual player. He is the first specialist to win the award and the first non-back since 1955.

Father Played
Davis' ties with Alabama go back to the Rose Bowl days of the Crimson Tide in the late 1930s. His father, Alvin (Pig) Davis, was a star fullback for Alabama in that period.

Paul (Bear) Bryant, now head coach at Alabama, was an assistant coach for the Tide then, and reportedly had a role in recruiting the elder Davis as a player. Both hail from Arkansas, Bryant from Forcyce and Davis from Greenbrier.

Tim Davis, who plans to enter medical school next year, was a quarterback in high school. He suffered an injury in his junior year and never played football with contact again.

and led to both Illini touchdowns in the second half.

Final Threat

Donnelly's final filch late in the third quarter came on the Illini 4, not only squelching the final Huskie threat but also precipitating an 85-yard Illinois scoring drive.

Coach Pete Elliott, who visited when his California Bears were drubbed by Iowa 38-12, made his first post-game gesture a tribute to the injured Douglas.

The Huskies kept pretty much away from the Illini middle guarded by All-America line-backer - center Dick Butkus, but Elliott said Washington caused plenty of trouble with its quick short passes and quarterback option plays.

Elliott said the turning point for the Illini, if any, came on Jim Plankenhorn's 32-yard field goal on the final play of the first half. This came after Siler fumbled and Illinois recovered on Washington's 15 and shaved Washington's lead to 7-3 at half-time.

It was not a game of spectacular plays, excepting 154-pound Steve Bramwell's 52-yard kickoff return in the fourth period after Grabowski plunged one yard for the second Illini touchdown.

Even after Illinois' 32-yard strike in six plays, capped by Jim Warren's two-yard scoring scamper for a 10-7 Illini lead in the third quarter, Washington still was very much in the game.

But Grabowski personally shut the gate on the Huskies on the Illini's 85-yard fourth quarter drive. He carried 11 times in that 18-play march, finally cracking over on a fourth-down and six-inches to go situation.

Hawks' Mikita Wins $500 Award

MONTREAL (AP) — Center Stan Mikita of the Chicago Black Hawks became $500 richer Wednesday night by leading the scorers halfway through the National Hockey League season.

Mikita and Jean Beliveau of the Montreal Canadiens wound up the first 35 games of the 70-game NHL schedule tied on points but Mikita took first-place honors because of his better goal-scoring.

Mikita had 21 goals and 27 assists for 48 points, while Beliveau had 16 goals and 32 assists.

Texas Established Itself

'We Just Weren't Good Enough,' Hardin Says

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS (AP)—Several irrevocable facts came out of the Cotton Bowl football game Wednesday.

Texas established itself as national champions in the eyes of Navy. Coach Wayne Hardin said it as emphatically as he could but Adm. Charles Kirkpatrick, the Navy superintendent, put more punch into it with:

"They beat hell out of us, I would say."

The Texas players were way ahead of everybody. Out on the field of the Navy, the big Longhorn tackle, was doing a little friendly needling.

After the second Texas touchdown, Faulkner asked the guys across the line from him: "Who do you think is No. 1?"

"You know," said Staley, "they didn't want to talk about it."

Good Sports

But the Navy players were good sports, played as well as they could and got the praise of their coach for their efforts.

"They gave all they had and they just met a better team, that's all," said Hardin, a tone

Hornung and Karras were suspended by Rozelle last spring after extensive investigation of gambling incidents tied in the NFL games.

Ratzlaff said discussion of the NFL players pension plan also is a prime topic during the two days, as well as hearing a report on current legislation involving tax relief for professional athletes.

Georgia Nips Alabama

Utah Pulls Upset Over Rated Cincinnati, 87-68

BY BOB GREEN

It's about time for Utah basketball Coach Jack Gardner to start changing his tune.

The likeable coach of the Running Redskins had good reason for such preseason comments as these:

"We know we have a long way to go."

"I can't be optimistic about scoring column. Joel Ungrodt had 19, Steve Nault and Tom Steinmetz 13.

Neither the Carls nor the Oles have played Midwest Conference games as yet. Both were expected to be among the contenders this season.

Friday, the Carls will be facing the top scorer in the loop in the Vikings' Joel Ungrodt, who has a 22-point average.

Hurt by graduation losses, Carleton is building its hopes around big Mike Tierney, a strong 6-4 center, who is the only returning starter. He will get help from veterans Ron Sanders, John Kirby, Terry Miller and newcomers Jack Arado and Rick Chap.

Injury plagued St. Olaf will be trying to stop the 1-2 scoring punch Ripon has in Jack Anderson and Gary Mevis, who are tied for seventh in the league with 18.5 averages. They get plenty of aid from Willie Alexander and Jim Cahoon.

St. Olaf has already lost Andy Boe and Tom Malchow, both of whom stand 6-6, for the season because of injuries, but can still depend upon Fred Russler, Denney Olson, and Dave Glenn to provide scoring and rebounding the first time this season. In the

this year compared with many others."

"We have to be considered in the role of underdogs."

One Regular

Sure. It's very understandable. He had only one regular returning from last season's team, was loaded with sophomores and appeared to be hurting for size.

So now the Utes have an 11-1 record, finished their pre-conference season with a 87-68 upset of fourth-ranked Cincinnati Wednesday night and are gunning for national recognition.

The swift, spirited Utes barged out to a 39-31 halftime lead, increased the margin to 12 points after intermission then fought off a Cincinnati rally that closed to within two points, 66-64, with less than two minutes to go.

Only a handful of games were scheduled Wednesday as the colleges took a deep breath from the rigors of the holiday tourneys before jumping into conference play.

In the only other major games Georgia edged Alabama 49-47, Louisville romped over Marquette 85-67, Rhode Island upset Memphis State 68-66 and Toledo routed Kent State 75-57.

Injured Washington QB Consoled by Illini's Elliott After Game

Bill Douglas Dislocates a Knee Early

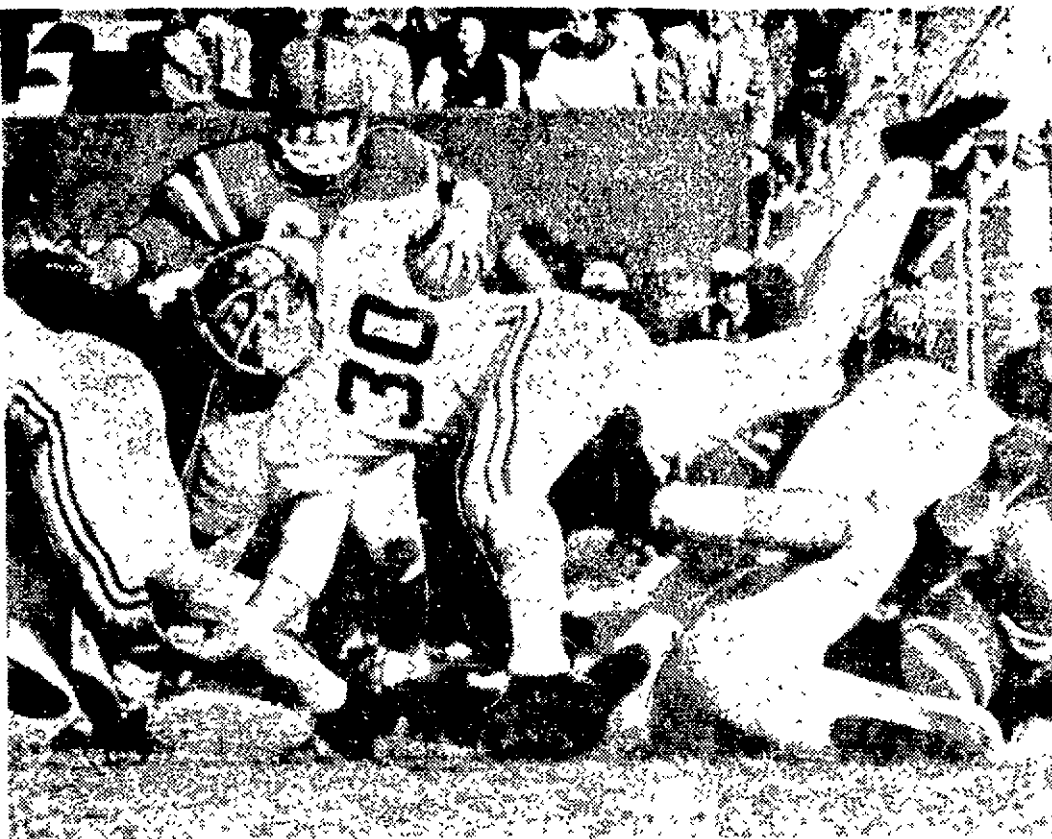

By BILL DOUGLAS—
PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The first thing Coach Pete Elliott of victorious Illinois did after the Rose Bowl game Wednesday was to pegleg it to Washington's injured star quarterback Bill Douglas and blurt: "I can't say how sorry I am."
Douglas, injured as he brilliantly directed a brisk Washington opening drive, was in a wheel chair, his dislocated knee heavily bandaged.
Elliott still limps badly from a knee wrenched in Illinois' first Rose Bowl practice. But he hustled to Douglas at the entrance of the Washington dressing room before he entered his own hilarious Illini dressing room.
Although Illinois wore down Washington in the second half, Elliott conceded it was "most unfortunate Douglas was lost so early in the game."

out for their paces, as the meet was in progress, a good portion of the crowd of around 5,000 mopped up the meet by walking across the track and infield.
The track announcer sized up the situation in a hurry and reminded the crowd that "we have world record breakers right here. Why are you leaving?"
Return to Bleachers
The Packers went about their business, of course, and most of the spectators returned to the bleachers as a field of eight fleeters, including Hayes, got ready for the spectacular 100-yard dash. Having watched the Packers the last 23 weeks, Packer Publicist Tom Miller and your correspondent stole a look at the century run.
Hayes of Florida A and M, the only football playing world record trackman in existence, shot out of the starting blocks so fast he seemed to stumble and just ran away from the field. Three watches clocked him at 9.1 seconds, another slightly higher.
Gubner, a squat giant of 285 pounds who pitches the shot put for NYU. Looks like a natural for football but between throws he explained that "I didn't play anything but high school football. I believe I could play pro football, though."
Gubner's best throw was 59 feet, 7 1/2 inches, which is quite a bit off his world mark of 66-11.
Pennel was having the same trouble, clearing only 16 feet, one quarter inch with his fibre glass pole. His world mark is 17 feet, three-quarter inches.
Meanwhile, the Packers were going through their best work-out of the week . . . and it wasn't easy since you must remember the previous night was "Happy New Year." The usual 11 p.m. curfew didn't go into effect until Wednesday night.
The weather turned cooler Wednesday, dropping to 68 from 75. And the Packers really looked sharp. Everybody was happy about the return to 1963 form, including Lombardi and one of the visitors, Andy Gustafson, longtime coach and athletic director at Miami U.

Illinois Sophomore Fullback Jim Grabowski was selected as the "Most Valuable Player" in the Rose Bowl game in Pasadena Wednesday. Grabowski is embraced by his father following the game in the Illini dressing room. He ran for 125 yards in 23 attempts as Illinois defeated Washington, 17-7. (AP Wirephoto)

Last Ditch Pass Fails for Auburn

Claridge Says 68-Yard TD Run Was Designed for Short Gain

BY GENE PLOWDEN
MIAMI (AP) — Nobody was more surprised than Nebraska's quarterback Dennis Claridge when he galloped 68 yards to a touchdown on the second play of Wednesday's Orange Bowl game with Auburn.
"That play is designed for about two or three yards," Claridge said. "It surprised me as much as it did Auburn."
Auburn Coach Ralph Jordan called it "a defensive mistake—a trap play well executed."
Claridge broke quickly into the clear and only one Auburn player had a good shot at him as he reeled off the longest run in the Bowl's history and started the Huskers on the way to a 13-7 victory.
No Adjustment
"I thought we would win until that fourth down pass was knocked down with 1:25 to go," Jordan said.
Jordan said he made no adjustment when Auburn went to its dressing room at halftime.
"We just decided to get after people we hadn't been getting after," he said. "I thought it was a good ball game the second half."
"They (Nebraska) didn't sacrifice speed and maneuverability for size. We had an opportunity to win it and didn't. That's all."
"All I did at the half was tell them they had to get with it and not be embarrassed. We had to go after them."
Auburn's hopes died when, with fourth and four to go, Jimmy Sidle's pass was knocked down.
Asked why the play was called instead of letting Sidle run, Jordan replied:
"Our people in the press box just didn't think we could get it across by running. I thought we'd win it until that play."
Jordan said Nebraska's Claridge was a fine quarterback and a good player, but added "I'll still go with Sidle."
Penalties Called
Bitter disappointment at penalties called against Nebraska at key points in the game was expressed by Coach Bob Devaney.
"I'm not criticizing the officiating at all, but the penalties probably hurt us," Devaney said in the hazy atmosphere of the Cornhusker dressing room. "Twice we had first downs, but the penalties hurt us."
Devaney said "no comment," when asked about the officiating, then added:
"I do think there were a number of questionable plays. We had some tough breaks."
"We think Auburn has a fine football team, one of the finest teams we played."
Devaney said he hoped the Orange Bowl renews its contract, which expires this year, with the Big Eight Conference.
Speaking for his team, Devaney said, "I think they wanted to justify being down here. The Southeastern Conference has sort of kicked them around the last few years."
Devaney blamed excess caution for Nebraska's second half difficulties.
"When we went into the second half with that (13-0) lead, we were probably cautious—too cautious, maybe. Auburn had made some adjustments. They played us more for a ground game."
"We didn't contain Sidle as much in the second half. He was throwing over the middle of the line more. I'd like to have both Sidle and Claridge."

Stone, who started at forward and switched to center after Willie Kingsley picked up a fourth foul, led the Warrior scoring with 20 points. Flynn added 19. After Kingsley got his fourth foul, Coach Ed Hickey made another lineup experiment and played with three guards.
The scoring honors went to Louisville's 6-foot-7 John Reuther, who collected 23 points in the 23 minutes he played. Ron Brooks added 19 for Louisville.

tations in the play-for-pay leagues.
Eleven players from the Big Eight champion team were selected in the pro drafts, two as future choices. Most eagerly sought were 259-pound guard Bob Brown and 245-pound tackle Lloyd Voss, first round picks of the Philadelphia Eagles and the Green Bay Packers.
Late Surge
Nebraska needed all its muscle to save the win over Auburn against a fierce late surge led by Tigers quarterback Jimmy Sidle.
With two minutes to go, Sidle had the Tigers on the Nebraska 11 in a furious bid for a winning touchdown, but a fourth down pass was batted away and the Cornhuskers escaped with the first victory a Big Eight team ever scored over a Southeastern Conference foe in seven Orange Bowl games.
For a time, it appeared that Nebraska, the national champion rushing team, was going to use its 16-pounds-a-man weight advantage up front to crush the SEC runners-up.
On the second play, with a formation Nebraska designed for use in a short yardage situation, quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the bowl's record for a long run by speeding 68 yards to a touchdown.
Field Goals
Twice more in the first half, Nebraska thrust close to the Auburn goal to set up field goals by Dave Theisen of 31 and 36 yards. Up to then, with the Nebraska ends containing their wide runs, the Tigers hadn't made any kind of a threat.
An 80-yard punt return by Frank Solich might have produced another early Nebraska touchdown, but the officials ruled that he had stepped out of bounds at the Husker 42.
But the second half was a vastly different story. Nebraska's awesome running attack began to crumble against the small but courageous Auburn line and Sidle finally found the way to get the Tigers moving.
Sidle hit Buck Waid with a 28-yard pass, then swept 13 yards wide to his left for the first touchdown that put Auburn back into the game with only a six-point deficit.
A 69-yard drive by the Tigers against a fast weakening Nebraska defense, with Sidle clicking on a sharp series of passes over the middle, fell just short with only 1:25 to go.
Contract Expires
The two lines charged into each other with such zest in the first half that Brown broke his shoulder pad in one head-on collision. He had to keep it on with tape in the second half because the team didn't have another one big enough.
The Big Eight's contract to furnish the Orange Bowl's host teams expired with this game. Negotiations on a renewal are expected to start later this week. The Orange Bowl Committee has been under pressure to go into the open market for both teams, but Nebraska's victory could influence the decision.

stalled drive with a 21-yard pass to the Navy five to George Sauer, son of a former Navy coach.
Fullback Harold Philipp—that's the way he spells it—took it over from the two.
Up to this stage Navy's Staubach, the All-America and Heisman Trophy winner, had been beating his head against the rushing Texas line like a fly caught in a bottle.
Second Visit
It was Staubach's second visit to the Cotton Bowl this season, and neither he nor Navy is likely to be anxious to see the place again. The Middles, who finished 9-1 for the regular season, lost their only game on the Texas' third team then wound up the game on the Navy one-foot line.
Texas also had the satisfaction of making the much-maligned football polls look good again. It was the seventh time in the last eight tries that the national champion had protected its ranking in a bowl game. Minnesota in the 1961 Rose Bowl game was the last No. 1 team to lose.
The last 1-2 match-up was in the 1963 Rose Bowl, when national champion Southern California outlasted second-ranked Wisconsin 42-37.

same turf, 32-28 to Southern Methodist.

Roger wound up with some impressive statistics but in the final analysis they were about as useless as those banners reading: "We're No. 1" that some sailors brought to the game.
For the record, Staubach had 31 pass attempts, a personal high, and 21 completions, a Navy and Cotton Bowl record. He gained 228 yards passing, which surpassed the Cotton Bowl mark set earlier in the game by Carlisle.
But the quarterback also had a minus-47 yards rushing, and that was a personal high, too.
It indicated the number of times the charging Texas line tossed him on his back.
Staubach got the Middles a fourth quarter touchdown, which he scored on a roll-out run from the two, but he was knocked loose from the football again near the end.
Third Team
Texas' third team then wound up the game on the Navy one-foot line.
Texas also had the satisfaction of making the much-maligned football polls look good again. It was the seventh time in the last eight tries that the national champion had protected its ranking in a bowl game. Minnesota in the 1961 Rose Bowl game was the last No. 1 team to lose.

Bowling Tips

BY DON CARTER AND MARION LADEWIG

Center the Ball
Perhaps I am old-fashioned, but I still recommend holding the ball near the center of your body when getting set. A number of successful professionals move the ball far to the right before starting, but I believe the average bowler will do better with this more natural stance.
Insert your fingers comfortably and support the ball with your left hand until you begin your push-away and your steps to the line.
HERE'S BOWLING IN A NUTSHELL! Outlined for you in detail in the pocket or purse-sized pamphlet, "Control Tips For Beginners." To get your copy, send 10c and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Marion Ladewig, in care of this newspaper.

Scott Paper Reports Plan To Reduce River Pollution

MADISON—A three-pronged $1,500,000 attack on sulphite and sludge pollution in the Oconto River was announced Tuesday by Scott Paper Co. in its year-end report to T. F. Wisniewski, director of the state committee on water pollution. At the company's Oconto Falls operation, three measures are proposed to make a substantial improvement in dissolved oxygen content, elimination of accumulated sludge beds and reduction of suspended solids in the Oconto River downstream from the mill.

State authorization is needed before Scott can begin detailed engineering and construction. Completion of the new facilities would take from 12 to 24 months. Meanwhile, the road-binder program will be continued.

Largest and most costly unit in the over-all project is the evaporator plant. This will boil off surplus water from strong sulphite liquor and is designed to yield a syrup concentrate of 50 per cent solids. Teamed with the evaporator unit are furnaces and boilers for burning the concentrate as fuel, primarily to make steam needed for the evaporators. Boiled-off water will be condensed and pumped to a surge basin. Weak liquor from the blow-pits which now goes direct to the river will be held in a surge basin, treated with a surface aerator to reduce its biochemical oxygen demand and then will be released in quantities proportionate to the changing flows and working capacity of the stream. Effluents containing fiber and other suspended solids will be clarified in another basin before discharge to the river, thus reducing the escape of materials which otherwise could contribute to growth of sludge beds.

Tipsy Driver Found Guilty

Slinger Motorist Fined $200 After Being Tried Today

Gilbert J. Strupp, 27, Slinger, was found guilty of drunken driving after a trial today in Outagamie County Court, Branch 2.

Strupp was arrested July 7 by Outagamie County police in the Town of Grand Chute. He pleaded innocent of the charge in July.

Strupp was fined $200 and his license was revoked for one year. After his arrest in July, Strupp was examined by a doctor and tested, 18 on the drunkometer. A reading of .15 is considered evidence of intoxication.

State Aids to County Mental Hospitals

One of the important bills which has been lost in the legislative process thus far would revise the state aid formula for county mental hospitals so as to encourage counties to enter into active treatment programs for the mentally ill. It deserves serious consideration when the legislature reconvenes next spring.

The bill was drawn up after several years of study by a citizens committee representing county boards, county hospital personnel, the state Public Welfare Department and the Mental Health Association.

At the present time county hospitals which offer anything more than average custodial care are actually penalized under the state aid formula. The costs of all county hospitals in the state are averaged out and each county is then reimbursed at this average rate.

Several years ago under a special grant a pilot program was started at the Brown County Hospital to determine if an active treatment program could increase the discharge rate for mental patients. After the first year, the Brown County Board continued the pilot program at its own expense, and the results have been encouraging.

The Menninger Clinic in Kansas has proven conclusively that the costs of institutionalizing the mentally ill can be reduced spectacularly by a program of active treatment.

It is time that the state of Wisconsin modernize its state aids to counties to encourage county hospitals to modernize their treatment programs.

What Goes on in Cambodia?

The matter of our current hassle with little Cambodia gets stranger all the time.

A few weeks ago the argument was supposed to be mainly about a radio broadcast in Cambodia in which some pleasure was expressed about the assassination of President Kennedy. Charles Yost, a United States delegate to the United Nations, demanded an apology from the Cambodian delegate. Our Ambassador to Cambodia, Philip Sprouse, requested an investigation of the broadcast.

Prince Sihanouk became righteously indignant about what he considered an affront to his government and a threat to Cambodia's sovereignty or something like that. He said he didn't want any more American aid and was going to invite in the Red Chinese. Moreover he demanded an apology from the United States for its criticism.

Sihanouk's "so there!" attitude was quite a bit like Pakistan's outrage when the United States sent military aid to India to combat the invading Red Chinese. Pakistan made arrangements with Peking to land its jets on the airfield constructed with American funds. The reaction was childish and emotional.

But now in Cambodia it appears that the prince is really worried about a "Free Cambodia" movement which would like to oust Sihanouk. He also demanded that the United States halt broadcasts from another radio station he complains is backed by the Central Intelligence Agency. He isn't going to let anybody mediate our differences, he says, until his demands are met.

We hold no great admiration for Sihanouk. Anyone who plays footsie with the Communists out of pique or hurt feelings has little business trying to rule even such a small nation as Cambodia. But United States efforts at intrigue haven't proved very successful in either Cuba or Viet Nam as far as we can tell. The governments we have encouraged to overthrow Batista and Diem have not yet looked very good.

Door County's Beauties

Those of us who live so close to Door County are sometimes apt to overlook its unique beauties. It often takes artists and poets from a little further away to bring them to our attention.

Two books on the market this winter do just that. Mask, The Door County Coon is written by Earl Sherwan who grew up in Shorewood but who spends his summers near Fish Creek. It is a child's book but its descriptions of the peninsula as well as the sketches of native animals will interest the reader of any age who is familiar with Door County.

Journeys in Green Places is quite different but it also involves the fascination of the peninsula. Its author, Virginia Eifert, lives in Illinois but she also is spending more and more time in Door County on the Lake Michigan side. Her book concerns "the shores and woods" and gives extensive background into the glacial eras which created the limestone cliffs and provided the variety of plants unique to the area. It is a book of philosophy as well as of nature. The author writes at the end of her book:

We are at the mercy of nature. As long as nature can still do that, perhaps man for a while longer is safe from himself. The laws of nature must still govern his own laws. Those are the same laws which have shaped the woods and the bogs and the lakes and dunes, which regulate where each thing will grow, with order and reason and success, and which give deep significance to the potentials of the water, the sand, the sky, and a flying bird.

The two books on Door County serve to give added significance to the effect the area has upon its visitors. Each in a different way tends to make us pause and look around us and be grateful.

Another Horatio Alger Story

There is still opportunity in America.

The Wall Street Journal tells the story of one Mr. Earl Wright of Decatur, Ill. He was a partner in a small firm which manufactured lawn mowers. On the side he designed a dust-collecting device and stopped into a grinding mill in that area to try and sell it. This mill ground up corn cobs. The process gave off a fine peach-colored dust.

Mr. Wright noticed that the men working in the mill had complexions "that would put a Hollywood starlet to shame." He took some of the dust home and asked his wife and some of her friends to try it as a face powder.

Last month women spent some $40,000 for this same face powder. And Mr. Wright believes sales will be running at an annual rate of $1 million soon. The sole ingredient of the face powder is the corn cob dust he buys from the grinding mill near Decatur. And the dust is collected in one of the devices Mr. Wright originally invented.

There is some scientific basis for such use of corn cob powder. A Dr. Cleveland White, a Chicago dermatologist, already had patented the idea of using corn cob dust in the treatment of ringworm and other skin troubles. Its usefulness apparently derives from the speed with which it absorbs moisture, about five times faster than talc.

Dr. White had licensed a laboratory to make skin medicants under his patent. He had no interest in the cosmetic business, so the patent was subleased to Wright to make face powder.

The corn cob dust costs about the same as talc and since it has a natural skin color it wasn't necessary to add colorants. No perfume is used.

By using his eyes and his natural inquisitiveness, Mr. Wright has founded a new industry.

Looking Backward

33 Degrees Below in Appleton

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Jan. 2, 1864.

The continual snowing (probably becoming weary) ceased its downward tendency and gave place to Old King Aeolius, who did his best to celebrate New Year's on a "blow." But he, too, gave up the baton to Mr. Boreas, and the latter succeeded in biting people's noses, toeses and handses.

On New Year's morning the College thermometer (a graduated one with a wooden case) made 33 degrees below zero. President Mason says this is the lowest that the thermometer has descended in 10 years.

Friday at 3 p.m., (Jan. 1) the mercury ranged at 31 below zero in the sun and 14 degrees below in the shade. It was horrible, awful! The latter night and Saturday morning were fully equal to, if not more intensely cold, than the night of New Year's Eve.

25 YEARS AGO

Thursday, Dec. 29, 1938.

Olympic skier Sverre Fredheim, St. Paul Ski Club, was entered in the fifth annual tournament of the New London Ski Club at Mosquito Hill. He was 1938 champion of the Central United States Ski Association and a member of the American Olympic skiing team of the same year.

Three first places were awarded in the holiday home decorations contest at New London. The winners were Miss Dorothy Stern, Louis Schmollenberg and C. M. Tribby.

Carl Jahnke was named president of the new council at Mt. Olive Lutheran Church, Appleton. Other officers elected were James Reeder, vice president, Edward Mueller, secretary, Charles Bohl, treasurer, Reno Doerfler, financial secretary, Armin Knoke, Earl Kraemer and Henry Juhn, trustees.

Two recent compositions by LaVahn Maesch, professor of organ and music history at Lawrence Conservatory of Music, were played by the Rochester (New York) Symphony Orchestra. The same compositions, "Pastoral" and "Festiva," also were broadcast over the Columbia Network by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra.

10 YEARS AGO

Thursday, Dec. 31, 1953.

Dr. Chester I. Perschbacher, Appleton, was elected vice president of the International College of Dentists, United States of America section.

S. N. Pickard, Neenah veteran Republican organization worker, was appointed to the Republican Centennial celebration committee. The statewide group, including Gov. Kohler, were to plan the observance of the hundredth anniversary of the founding of the party in Ripon. The first meeting was held in a Ripon schoolhouse, Fond du Lac County, in March of 1854.

The St. Joseph Eagles won the seventh grade boys holiday basketball tournament. Members of the championship team were Joe Rechner, Ted Bohalschek, Don Bunkelman, Bill Steger, Pat Below, Dan Collar and Tom Hildebrandt.

Allen-Scott Report

Mrs. Oswald's Father Is Soviet Intelligence Agent, FBI Says

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN AND PAUL SCOTT

The father of Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald is a colonel in the Soviet military intelligence service, on duty in the Minsk region.

Oswald lived for some time in that area during his three years in Russia.

The disclosure regarding Mrs. Oswald's father is among the most startling in the unpublished 127-page FBI report titled "Investigation of the Assassination of President Kennedy."

Beyond reporting what had been gleaned from Mrs. Oswald regarding her father's occupation, the FBI does not delve further into the matter. There is no indication in the FBI study of any connection between this information and the murder committed by Oswald.

Another significant disclosure in the FBI report is the estimate of $3,560 as the killer's income in his last 14 months. This figure was based on his widow's accounting.

Mrs. Oswald will be personally questioned by the special commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren. This interrogation will be private. No consideration has yet been given to holding public hearings.

The commission will hold some public sessions, but not until after the trial of Jack Ruby, slayer of Oswald. The commission already has decided on that. It has given no thought as yet to witnesses to be heard at the open sittings.

Similarly the FBI report, now in the hands of the commission, will eventually be published. But this may not be until the commission makes its own report.

The FBI study consists of six "books," two containing a largely chronological recital of events leading up to and following the assassination, and four mostly of exhibits.

J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, is compiling a list of questions on the basis of the FBI report. These questions apply to both Oswald and Ruby, and deal with a number of "unanswered gaps." Foremost among them is Oswald's mysterious trip to Mexico last fall (September 26 to October 3).

The Central Intelligence Agency has reported he was accompanied by two women and a man, the latter subsequently flying to Cuba. The CIA also ascertained that while in Mexico City, Oswald applied to the Cuban consul-general for a transit visa to Moscow. He was told he would first have to get a visa from the Soviet, but so far as is known he did not seek that.

At the special commission's request, the FBI has resumed its probing of both Oswald and Ruby. These investigations are proceeding simultaneously.

bones he is trying to play Russia off against the U.S. to ensure getting more aid from this country.

The Arab monarch frankly admitted that in a talk with former Ambassador William Macomber. An old friend of President Johnson Macomber is slated for a top job in the Alliance for Progress.

Before leaving Jordan, Macomber bluntly questioned Hussein about reports he contemplated seeking military assistance from Russia. It was during this discussion, that the King candidly acknowledged considering pursuing the tactics followed by Egypt's Gamal Nasser in playing both sides to the middle.

Jordan has received $325.5 million in U.S. aid. Of this, $321.2 million has been in grants; $4.3 million in loans. This year more than $70 million has been given Jordan in various forms of economic and military assistance.

This aid includes a considerable sum for "budget support"—funds to balance Jordan's budget, while that of the U.S. is deeply in the red.

King Hussein earnestly assured Ambassador Macomber he is a "loyal ally and friend" of the U.S. and the West. He emphatically denied any intention of establishing diplomatic relations with the Soviet.

At the same time he conceded he thought there is a lot to Nasser's strategy of working both sides. Also that reports published in U.S. and other papers that Hussein may resort to this have been suppressed in his country.

"I have been one of your country's most loyal friends and allies," asserted Hussein, "and I will continue to be as long as I reign. I have championed freedom as advocated by the West, and I am strongly opposed to Communism or Socialism as dictated by Moscow and Cairo. There can be no compromising if we are to live as free men.

"What I can't understand are intimations that your country may reduce aid to Jordan. At the same time, you go on assisting Nasser whose aim is to drive you from the Middle East and destroy your only true Arab friends in this strategic area, Jordan and Saudi Arabia. I am utterly unable to comprehend such a policy. It seems to me without rhyme or reason.

"I have no intention of establishing diplomatic relations with the Soviet. But to be candid with you, I am employing some of Nasser's tactics to keep you from cutting your assistance to my country. Nasser appears to get all he wants by playing you off against Russia, so I propose to do the same thing.

"We need every dollar your country is giving us to stay free. Don't abandon my people. They want to remain free and independent, and we are depending on the U.S."

Macomber promised to convey this appeal to President Johnson.

Hussein particularly wants latest-model U.S. fighter planes, also anti-aircraft rockets and other new-type weapons.

Senator Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, in a recent voluminous report on U.S. aid in the Middle East, strongly favors continued economic assistance to Jordan on the ground this is "most important to the United States."

"Jordan's future economic success is most important to the United States," Gruening holds. "This is so not only because Jordan is oriented toward the Free World and stands as a buffer state between Israel and the militantly hostile Arab World. It is especially important because Jordan seeks its economic development not through the socialism which so many of its Arab nations espouse, but through the free enterprise system. In many of the other Arab countries being assisted by U.S. economic aid, it can be said that we are literally using our dollars to prove that socialism is as good or better than our own system of free enterprise. That is not the case in Jordan."

Reynolds' Main Mark In First Year Was His Victory Over Budget

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON—As he reflects on his first and difficult year in his office and considers the themes that may be useful in his reelection drive, Gov. John Reynolds will be inclined to regard his budget victories as the most significant in the record.

Wyngaard

A wary and skillfully led Republican legislative majority foiled him at virtually every turn on other issues—highways, conservation, civil rights, constitutional revision, governmental reorganization, tax policy and yet others.

But the appropriations program in the nature of things is the heart of a governor's policy as leader of the state, and it is a curious fact that here he won a smashing victory although there is reason to doubt that his constituents, and even the Democratic party organization which he heads, is yet fully aware of it. One reason is that the budget fight of the year was inextricably involved in tax policy. When the governor surrendered, as he did, on the issue of how to raise the money and accepted some of the sales taxation he had said he would not accept, the purposes of his capitulation were over-looked.

LIBERAL BUDGET

The Republicans drove a hard bargain when they sat down to settle the tax stalemate. But it should not be overlooked that the governor submitted terms of his own, and won them. Reynolds like most Democrats is a liberal on spending. He had made higher appropriations for education and welfare and other purposes the hallmark of his first year in office. As he sees it, he won as much as he gave, when he accepted the Republican tax terms, and the Republicans accepted for the most part his budget demands. There are several ways to test the dimensions of his budget victory, or achievement—the measure will be the individual's own, according to his political tastes.

The current total of biennial state appropriations is around $643 millions. That is not only far and away the highest total ever authorized, it is a full 25 per cent greater than the total of the previous biennium. Whatever the Republicans may say about high spending in their new campaign, the record remains that they authorized a Reynolds budget, by their controlling votes in the legislature, that represents a more rapid rate of increase than during any of the other periods during the period of expenditure inflation following World War II.

Another way to measure the amplitude of the budget is to note that the spending agencies are quite content with it. Some of the major divisions which cried out so anxiously during the early part of last year have been quite silent since the settlement, which tells its own story.

POLITICS?

All of which is not to say that the budget victory is an easy one to translate into campaign oratory or political publicity in the fight with the Republicans for control of the statehouse in the next election. "Budget" is an amorphous and difficult concept for the man on the street. A candidate cannot boast about the size of expenditures alone, without essentially conservative instincts of the Wisconsin electorate. The problem will be to translate the fact of the budget story into comprehensible and human terms—into images of children getting better care in hospitals, mentally retarded being treated more kindly, young men and women enrolling in colleges and universities with expanding services, and state aid dollars being funneled into localities for the support of essential local services that might otherwise be deprived because of the creaking of the local property tax base.

But John Reynolds has shown a certain resourcefulness in this regard, and probably will know how to make the most of his situation.

Each Stage of Life Needs Apprenticeship

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Purely Personal Prejudices: The one thing a woman wants from a man is respect; but, paradoxically, it is the one thing she becomes most easily dissatisfied with, in its undiluted form.

Children, as we all know, have to learn how to grow into adolescence and adulthood; what we do not see as clearly is that adults, too, have to learn how to grow into middle age and old age; each stage of life requires an apprenticeship, and it is often as hard for a man or woman to learn how to be middle-aged as it was for them to learn adolescence.

Discipline without talent can go a great deal further than talent without discipline—for discipline itself is a kind of talent for making the very most out of the least.

The people who walk around clutching transistor radios to their chests remind me of the living dead, galvanized into a semblance of life only by electrical impulses tickling them from the outside.

One isn't a reasonable person until one knows how to get along with those we consider possessing less reason; for the prime function of the faculty of reason is to accept its limitations.

Dick Nixon's law firm changes its name to Nixon, Mudge, Rose, Guthrie and Alexander. The firm wanted to add two more partners, but the receptionist ran out of breath.

First rule of chess: Girls who never let a boy get fresh often wind up subject to a stalemate.

President Johnson shoots a deer. News was withheld as to the kind of weapon used, but the Army denies it was an atomic cannon.

Goldwater accuses L.B.J. of "arm-twisting." Political tempers are fierce this season. Next thing you know, Goldwater will be charged with wrist-patting.

President to Wage Strong Campaign This Year for Peace

BY FRANK CORMIER
JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson is said to favor an unrelenting peace offensive in 1964.
A White House source reported that Johnson is determined to seek new breakthroughs on peace and does not think the United States can or should wait until after the November presidential balloting before pressing ahead in this area.

New Rush at Wall in Berlin

Mayor Brandt Will Try for Renewal of Accord With Reds

BY JOHN O. KOEHLER
BERLIN (AP)—A new rush of West Berliners crossing the wall is expected with only four more days remaining on the agreement allowing visits to East Berlin.

A total of 172,740 West Berliners greeted the new year with relatives behind the wall, pushing past 600,000 the number of visitors to the Red sector since the visits began Dec. 19.

The huge flow of West Berliners placed new pressure on Mayor Willy Brandt's West Berlin government to discuss an extension of the visiting arrangement with the Communist East German regime.

Brandt seeks renewal of the agreement expires at midnight Sunday.

Brandt has said he will try to renew the agreement, which has given West Berliners their first chance to see relatives in East Berlin since the Communists built the wall in August 1961.

He also is under opposite pressure from Allied and West German officials and West Berlin newspapers who regard any negotiations with the East German regime as recognition and fear such talks can only strengthen the Communist concept of a divided Germany and a neutralized West Berlin.

Brandt describes the pass agreement as a purely technical, humanitarian arrangement without the implications of an international agreement between states.

A gay and happy throng returned from East Berlin early New Year's Day after welcoming 1964 with a frenzy of song and drink. East Berlin's Karl Marx Allee was aglow with fireworks.

Malaysia Seeks Military Aid on Borneo Frontier

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP)—The Malaysian government is reported considering an appeal to Britain, Australia and New Zealand for military personnel to help build up defenses on its Borneo border with Indonesia.

Informed sources said the proposed request was discussed Wednesday night in an emergency cabinet meeting. Mostly technical personnel are wanted, to improve such facilities as communication lines in the jungles of the Borneo states of Sarawak and Sabah.

All three Commonwealth allies have pledged to defend Malaysia against Indonesian President Sukarno's campaign to smash the new federation. Britain already has sent several thousand troops to North Borneo.

The cabinet meeting was called to discuss the clash Sunday in Sabah, formerly British North Borneo, in which eight Malaysian soldiers and a civilian were killed and 19 troops and five civilians were injured. The attack 30 miles inside Malaysian territory was blamed on Indonesian army regulars.

Greek Cypriots Oppose Special Role for Turks

BY ALEX EFTY
NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Archbishop Makarios, Greek Cypriot president of Cyprus, has begun a campaign to end Turkey's special role in Cyprus, granted by the island's 1960 independence treaties.

Charging Turkey with "aggressive actions" in the communal strife between Greek and Turkish Cypriots, Makarios announced Wednesday night he would seek to dissolve agreements under which Britain, Greece and Turkey guarantee Cyprus' sovereignty.

Angered By Turkey
The treaties with all three governments are interlocked, and all three must be abrogated to get rid of the agreement with Turkey. But Makarios and other members of his government have made plain the Turkish government is the object of their ire.

The action came amid fresh bloodshed on the 12th day since the stage is set for further savings in the budget that will go to Congress in January 1965. He believes fiscal prudence is, in the informant's words, "no longer a rich man's issue."

Message to Khrushchev
The President has profound respect for Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and also is greatly impressed by Gen. Maxwell Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Earlier Wednesday Johnson told Soviet Premier Khrushchev in a message that the time for talking peace has passed and "1964 should be a year in which we take further steps toward that goal."

"In this spirit I shall strive for the further improvement of relations between our two countries," Johnson said in a reply to a New Year's message from Khrushchev and Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev.

The two Russian leaders had said in their personal message to Johnson that the old year saw "a significant improvement in the approach to the solutions of urgent international problems and in the development of Soviet-American relations."

They voiced hope that the new year "will be marked by further significant success."

Effort Seen to Steal Documents Involved In Swedish Spy Case

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Security police are investigating an attempt to burglarize the safe of the lawyer defending air force Col. Stig Wennerstrom, charged with espionage for the Soviet Union.

The intruders reportedly entered the lawyer's office during the Christmas holidays and tried without success to open the safe, in which documents on the Wennerstrom case were kept.

Wennerstrom was arrested last summer and police say he has admitted working for the Russians during World War II. He is being held at Stockholm police headquarters.

Plans Completed for Pope's Holy Land Visit

BY BENNET M. BOLTON
VATICAN CITY (AP)—A Vatican Christian unity expert was added today to the official party that will accompany Pope Paul VI on his Holy Land pilgrimage.

The addition of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Jan J. Willebrands, Dutch-born secretary of the Vatican's Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity, followed agreement by the Pope and Orthodox Patriarch Athenagoras I of Constantinople (Istanbul) to meet during the pilgrimage.

Vatican officials said there would be no formal announcement here about the meeting of the Pope with Patriarch Athenagoras—the first encounter between a Roman Catholic pontiff and an Orthodox patriarch in five centuries.

The Italian government planned a big send-off for the Roman Catholic pontiff as the head of the tiny Vatican state.

A squadron of Italian air force F84 jet fighters was assigned to escort the Pope's special Alitalia Airlines jetliner to international waters. The military planes also will greet the Pope's return flight from Jordan and Israel Monday.

Romans who attended New Year's Day masses at churches along the papal route to the airport were told the time to gather to cheer the pontiff on his way.

Church Bells to Ring
Bells in Rome's 450 churches will peal at the moment of take-off.

Pope Paul was in the midst of a 3-day period of intensified prayer to prepare for his historic trip.

An afternoon spiritual retreat, or period of withdrawal from normal routine to pray and meditate, was scheduled in a Vatican chapel for the three cardinals and 30 other Vatican aides who will accompany the pontiff.

The Pope, in an appearance before a New Year's Day crowd of 30,000 in St. Peter's Square, said his trip "may have an impact for many years to come."

Man killed, Father Critically Wounded

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Juan Alvarado, 30, the father of five children, was shot to death and his father wounded early Wednesday after an argument broke out at a New Year's party at the home of a friend.

Alvarado was killed by a single .22 caliber pistol bullet in the heart. His father, Herminio, 57, was in critical condition after being shot twice in the chest with the same weapon.

Police were holding a 28-year-old man they said had attempted to get Mrs. Juan Alvarado to go for an auto ride.

Fatalities Stay Below Those for Christmas Period

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Holiday traffic killed 223 Americans during the 48 hours of New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.

Delayed reports from states were expected to increase the death count which safety experts said was greater than anticipated.

48-Hour Toll

The two holidays were tabulated for the first time on a 48-hour basis. Because a 30-hour period formerly was used, no comparable fatality counts were available for comparison.

The New Year's toll compared with an average of 117 traffic deaths a day during the first 11 months of 1963. But it was much greater than the latest available seasonal average for a December Tuesday, 95, and a January Wednesday, 68—a combined toll of 163.

Council's Estimate

The National Safety Council had estimated in advance of the holiday that between 140 and 180 persons might be killed in traffic mishaps from 6 p.m. New Year's Eve to midnight Wednesday—a 30-hour period.

Council President Howard Pyle said Wednesday night that the final figures "definitely will go beyond this estimate." The Associated Press count showed that nearly 200 traffic fatalities were reported during the 30-hour period defined by the council.

There were 316 highway deaths during last week's 48-hour Christmas holiday while 332 persons died in traffic accidents during the 1962-63 New Year's weekend holiday of four days.

The holiday traffic death toll compared to a total of 170 fatalities reported in an Associated Press survey for a nonholiday period of 48 hours, from 12:01 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 10 to 12:01 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 12.

3 Die in Fire at Nursing Home

COLUMBIA, Miss. (AP)—Fire swept a nursing home in this small south Mississippi town early today, killing three of the 17 occupants.

The blaze destroyed the one-story frame building.

An employee of the home, Mrs. Boyd Hamm, said she believed the fire started from a floor furnace.

None of the survivors was reported injured.

Sixteen of the occupants were men, most of them veterans of World War I.

Security Check Provided

Classified Files to be Available to Scholars

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon has issued a new standard rule under which classified defense information may be opened to "trustworthy" scholars and "others engaged in historical research, it was learned today.

The rule, in effect, requires such private citizens to pass the same kind of a security check as is given to civilian workers for the Defense Department.

This means a search of their background for any possible criminal or subversive record or connection.

"It treats these researchers from the security standpoint as though they were employees of the department," one official explained.

Appleton Youth Killed In Wood County Crash Involving 4 Automobiles

An Appleton youth, Patrick O'Connel, 19, 1626 N. Oneida St., was one of 13 state residents killed on Wisconsin roadways on the first day of 1964 shattering optimism that the new year would be relatively safe on the highways.

O'Connel, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon O'Connel, was driver of a car which was involved in a collision in which a Milwaukee resident, Mrs. Barbara Tobin, 23, also was killed. The accident occurred in Wood County and involved four automobiles.

Five minutes later, Mrs. Avis M. Crotty, 49, of New Berlin was killed when a car driven by her husband crashed into an empty car left without lights on a Waukesha County road.

Milton Pfeiffer, 43, of Kohler, was killed at 2:13 a.m. Wednesday.

Castro Shows Arms He Got From Soviets

Cuba Celebrates 5th Anniversary of Batista Overthrow

HAVANA (AP)—Premier Fidel Castro rolls out his Soviet-built military hardware today at a huge parade marking the fifth anniversary of the overthrow of dictator Fulgencio Batista.

Thousands of Cubans are expected to watch the display of tanks, artillery and ground-to-air missiles.

Reds See Review
Visiting Communist delegates from Europe, Asia and Latin America were to join Castro on the parade reviewing stand.

The Soviet delegation is led by Nikolai Podgorny, a secretary of the Soviet Communist party and a member of its Presidium.

In a new year's greeting to Castro, Soviet Premier Khrushchev and President Leonid Brezhnev promised:

"We again declare that revolutionary Cuba will not remain alone if it is attacked by United States aggressive military circles."

Castro said Wednesday night he believed President Kennedy was "beginning to think of the possibilities of normalization of relations" between the United States and Cuba before he was assassinated Nov. 22.

In a Havana-to-New York telephone interview with ABC he said he wanted to normalize Cuba's relations with the United States but "it belongs to the United States government to take the next step to help that normalization."

"But of course, it can never be over conditions of renouncing our political ideas," Castro said. "Never can we renounce our marxism."

Gear Crippled But Jet Lands

BOSTON (AP)—A Convair 440 jet, carrying 71 persons and crippled by a collapsed landing gear, skidded on a runway, spun around and came to rest on a wingtip Wednesday night.

None of the 63 passengers and eight crewmen was injured. A Trans World Airlines spokesman said damage to the plane was minor.

Good Day Today; Better Day Friday

Fox Cities—Partly cloudy, continued mild tonight and Friday. Low tonight near 28. High Friday near 35. Moderate westerly winds.

Appleton—Observations at 10 a.m. today. Temperatures for the 24-hour period: High 28; low 20. Wind velocity: 3 mph southwest. Barometer: 29.15 and rising. Relative humidity: 65 percent. Dew point: 19 degrees. Temperature: 28. Precipitation: none; heavy white frost; three inches of snow on the ground.

Sun sets today at 4:25 p.m., rises Friday at 7:30 a.m. Moon rises tonight at 8:18 p.m. The earth is now at the point in its orbit nearest to the sun.

David Waters, Press Officer at the State Department, with his sculptured likeness of the late President John F. Kennedy. Waters, who has done more oil painting than sculpturing, said he began the life-sized head on the night of the president's funeral and has worked on it every night since. Waters says, "It has been a labor of love." It is planned that 20 copies will be cast in bronze, one of which will be placed in the State Department auditorium where the late president held his news conferences. Waupaca Council Okays Resignation

Ald. Vernon Johnson Making Change In Business; No Replacement Named

WAUPACA — The city council served as chairman during the Monday night through a postponed meeting accepted the resignation effective Jan. 1 of Ald. Vernon Johnson, fifth ward alderman for five years. No replacement has been named.

Ald. Johnson, who was at the meeting, stated in his resignation letter he plans to close his Johnson Lumber Co. and accept another position.

Mayor Lloyd Matheson said he enjoyed working with Ald. Johnson and said he would be missed especially by the board of public works. Ald. Johnson was on the board for three years and accepted agreement with the Wisconsin Public Service Corp. for overhead wiring for several new street lights in the courthouse area.

A resolution calling for alternating yearly the city's depositary was adopted. The First National Bank will be the depositary this year and the Farmers State Bank next year. The parking meter collections will be alternated by months between the two banks.

Mayor Matheson said the banks need the meter money because there is a shortage of small change.

Mayor Matheson set Jan. 7 as the date to act on accepting the Old Taylor Lake subdivision. He urged the council to first adopt an ordinance which will prohibit the city from extending sewer and water services outside of the city limits.

Mayor Matheson said sewer and water should be extended only to areas annexed to the city.

Clintonville Scouts Stage Sleigh Ride
CLINTONVILLE — Girl Scouts of Troop 288 held a sleigh ride Monday night, followed by lunch and games at the Al Heiman residence, 133 Maize St.

Transportation for the sleigh ride at the Emory Knapp farm, route 1, Bear Creek, was provided by Mrs. Lloyd Hidde, Mrs. Warren Snider, Mrs. Ted Laib and Mrs. Rafoth.

Chilton VFW Auxiliary To See Swiss Slides
CHILTON — Next meeting of the VFW auxiliary is scheduled Jan. 9 in city hall. Slides of Switzerland will be shown by Mrs. Alex Casper.

Shiocton Legion Unit Sets Security Program
SHIOCTON — Shiocton American Legion Auxiliary will present a public program on national security and civil defense prior to a meeting Tuesday, according to Mrs. George Kennedy, president.

Beginning at 8 p.m., films will be shown. The first, a 30-minute color film, "The Pentagon Reports," explains military preparedness. "The Military Nurse" explains military careers and opportunities in the armed forces. "Towers of Truth," the third film, explains Radio Free Europe—the "voice of hope" to those under Communist rule.

The state auxiliary has set a goal of $25,000 to finance replacement of a transmitter for Radio Free Europe. Local units are sponsoring projects toward this goal. The slogan for this year is "The Iron Curtain is Not Soundproof — Radio Free Europe Gets the Truth Through."

Following the films and program, coffee will be served by the January committee with Mrs. Elmer Warning, chairman, and Mrs. Earl Kuether, chairman of the past presidents party, in charge.

The business meeting of Unit 512 will follow and plans for the participation in the Radio Free Europe project will be completed, Mrs. Kennedy said.

Family Returns To Florida After Black Creek Visit
BLACK CREEK — Mr. and Mrs. David Rideout and family, West Palm Beach, Fla., have returned to their home after spending Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rideout.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schneider and family, formerly of Marquette, Mich., were holiday guests of Mrs. Herman Levin, Miss Amanda and Miss Mata Schneider.

Mrs. John Minischmidt left for St. Cloud, Minn., to spend the winter with M. Sgt. and Mrs. Leroy Minischmidt.

3 Teams Tied For First in Bow Shooting

WAUPACA — King Archers have three teams tied for first place and three teams tied for fourth place at conclusion of the second round of indoor contests at the Waupaca Armory.

Matts Arrows, Rural Service and Wisconsin Gas Co. are tied for first place honors with two wins and no defeats. Glen's Super Market, Waupaca Cab Co. and the team with no sponsor are tied for fourth place with no wins and two losses.

Rural Service won a 3,945 to 3,911 over no sponsor, and Matts downed Glens, 3,988 to 3,778. Wisconsin Gas won a 3,945 to 3,911 decision over Waupaca Cab.

Individual honors went to Norman Matheson with a 753, Gordon Berlo, 712, and Bob Schaeffer, 700, in the men's division, Mel Matheson, 674, Ann Matheson, 648, and Shirley Hansen, 574, in the women's division, and John Woodliff, 582, Sandy Hansen, 564, and Dennis Hammond, 551, in the juvenile division.

Regular team shoots and instructions are Thursday nights.

Chilton Man Bowls 290 Game

CHILTON — Chick Hawig, owner of the Pla-Mor Bowling lanes here, Sunday evening rolled a 290 single game and a 689 series in the traveling classic league. Hawig's other two games were 216 and 183.

Opposing the Pla-Mor quint was the Fond du Lac Arcade Lanes. Frank Hilbert rolled a 193, 222 and a 243 to chalk up a 658 series.

The Fond du Lac bowlers took two games and tied the third to win the series.

Waupaca Car Dealers Change Firm Name

WAUPACA — The Feragen Motor Co., Inc., at Jefferson and Union streets now will be known as Wendt and Peterson, Inc.

Roy Wendt, president, and Norman Peterson, sales manager, announced only the name is changed. The garage has been under the Feragen name since 1945.

Wendt said the purchase agreement with the Feragen estate included changing the name. Mrs. Wendt is vice president and E. L. Carmody is secretary and treasurer.

Shiocton Legion Unit Sets Security Program

SHIOCTON — Shiocton American Legion Auxiliary will present a public program on national security and civil defense prior to a meeting Tuesday, according to Mrs. George Kennedy, president.

Beginning at 8 p.m., films will be shown. The first, a 30-minute color film, "The Pentagon Reports," explains military preparedness. "The Military Nurse" explains military careers and opportunities in the armed forces. "Towers of Truth," the third film, explains Radio Free Europe—the "voice of hope" to those under Communist rule.

The state auxiliary has set a goal of $25,000 to finance replacement of a transmitter for Radio Free Europe. Local units are sponsoring projects toward this goal. The slogan for this year is "The Iron Curtain is Not Soundproof — Radio Free Europe Gets the Truth Through."

Following the films and program, coffee will be served by the January committee with Mrs. Elmer Warning, chairman, and Mrs. Earl Kuether, chairman of the past presidents party, in charge.

The business meeting of Unit 512 will follow and plans for the participation in the Radio Free Europe project will be completed, Mrs. Kennedy said.

Boating Unit To Open Season In Appleton

Training Programs, Spring Meeting To be Discussed

Appleton Power Squadron is launching another season when it meets at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Conway Hotel for a district council meeting to discuss training programs and a national spring conference.

Registration for the local squadron's elementary piloting program will be Monday, when the 12-week course begins in Madison Jr. High School. Course sessions, which will be from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Mondays, are designed primarily to teach boating safety.

The district council meeting Saturday will be attended by representatives from throughout Wisconsin and Minnesota, the two states which comprise Power Squadron District No. 10. The conference to be discussed is scheduled for April 11-12 in Minneapolis.

60,000 Members

The United States Power Squadron now has 310 member squadrons and more than 60,000 members including squadrons in Hawaii, Yokohama and Tokyo, Puerto Rico and the Philippines.

Walter Wink, lieutenant commander of the Appleton unit, said the elementary piloting course is essential to individual membership. It can be followed, as a member chooses, with any of the dozen other courses offered including training in advanced piloting, navigation, marine electronics, engine maintenance, weather and other boating training. There is no charge for the elementary course.

Worker Dies When Hit by Frozen Wood

Bernard Marasch, 48, Rural New London, Killed Instantly

NEW LONDON — A 48-year-old rural New London man was killed this morning when he was struck by a large chunk of frozen wood shavings thrown down the chute of a 40-foot high McGraw-Edison silo here.

The victim was Bernard Marasch, route 2, New London, building maintenance supervisor for the manufacturing firm.

The frozen clots of shavings, which are stored in the silo before they are burned in the company boilers, was pitched down the chute by a worker on top of the structure.

He said he did not see Marasch when he dumped the shavings. The worker said he did not know Marasch had been injured until he finished his work atop the silo and climbed down.

Marasch apparently was killed instantly.

He had been employed by the firm about eight years. Survivors include his widow, three sons, and a daughter.

Catholic Students Projects Discussed At Vacation Meeting

Two Xavier High School students attended the third annual "Christmas Study Days on the International Apostolate" at the ICA Center in Evanston, Ill., during Christmas vacation.

Mark Babbitt, 802 Hewitt St., Neenah, and Ron Bixby, 1905 N. Morrison St., Appleton, Xavier students, were among 50 young men and women who spent three days of their Christmas vacation attending the programs directed by the staff of the U.S. Center for the International Catholic Auxiliaries (ICA).

Speakers included the Rev. Bernard J. Cooke, S.J., chairman of the Marquette University theology department, Milwaukee; Joseph Matthews, dean of the Ecumenical Institute, Chicago, and Michael Lenaghan, a student of Georgetown University, who spoke on the Conference of Inter-American Student Projects.

ICA is a worldwide organization of single laywomen who have pledged themselves to a lifetime of international service. They are dedicated to promoting the human, economic and spiritual development of the peoples of the world. Over 260 ICA members from 25 countries are in training or are working in teams in 17 countries.

The ICA Center in Evanston was founded in 1953 as a training center for ICA members. It also offers training courses for Papal Volunteers for Latin America (PAVLA), seminars, study days and summer service projects.

He was a deputy state attorney general.

100 Pounds of Top-Graded Meat Stolen From Market

OSHKOSH — Someone will be eating "pretty high off the hog," or steer as this case might be, and will have plenty of coffee on hand for those coffee breaks.

Owners of Tornow's Supermarket on State 47 just outside Appleton reported to the Winnebago County Sheriff's office at 8:18 p.m. on New Year's Eve that someone had broken into the store since it closed at 5:30 p.m. that day. Entry was gained by breaking a door window and reaching in to unlock the door.

Taken were 100 pounds of top grade meat including porterhouse, sirloin and top round steaks, two beef loins weighing 50 to 60 pounds each, three beef ribs weighing 25 to 30 pounds each and a case containing 12 cans of two-pounds of coffee each.

The coffee sold at $1.19 per can each, the beef loins were worth $77 and the beef ribs were worth $49.50 each. An estimate

Scholarships Established

Appleton Company Employees' Children Will be Eligible

Mt. Hope Machinery Co., with plants in Appleton, Massachusetts, North Carolina and Ontario, has announced establishment of a scholarship program to aid children of company employees.

The awards of $350 each will be made available, according to Ray Pitsch, Appleton plant manager, each April to the two highest ranking high school seniors in each of the plant areas who are children of Mt. Hope Machinery Co. employees.

Student Choice

The winners may choose any college or university in the United States or Canada and select any course of study leading to a degree. Each scholarship may be renewed for up to three years, after a review of the student's scholastic record, personal standards and participation in campus activities, according to Pitsch.

As the 1964-65 school year will be the first year of operation of the program, the company also has announced that two additional scholarships will be available for students in college who would not otherwise have an opportunity to compete in the scholarship program.

The Appleton plant is at 110 N. Douglas St.

of the cost of the steaks will be furnished the sheriff's office to top a record for nonstop flight by a squadron of F104 jet fighters. Officials said the 476th Squadron will fly 7,500 miles from George Air Force Base, Calif., to the Strategic Air Command base at Moron, near Seville.

State College Assets Exceed $100 Million

If the Wisconsin State College system issued an annual report to stockholders (Wisconsin taxpayers, students and parents), it would show assets valued at more than $100 million.

Eugene R. McPhee, Madison, director of state colleges, said figures in the central office of the nine state colleges, as of the start of 1964, include the following:

A total of 54 four-story dormitories and 68 other major buildings covering more than 100 acres of floor space; 60 automobiles and trucks; 1,200 acres of grounds; 675,000 books; furniture and equipment. Total value will exceed $100,000,000 when federal loans for construction of dormitories and student centers have been repaid from fees paid by students.

An operating budget for year ending June 30, 1964 with a total of $27 million, approximately half from state tax funds and half from student fees and income from dormitories and food service operations.

Faculty and Staff

A total of 1,440 faculty members, including more than 500 with the Doctor of Philosophy degree, and 850 civil service staff members living and working in Eau Claire, La Crosse, Menomonie, Oshkosh, Platteville, River Falls, Stevens Point, Superior, Whitewater and Madison. A monthly payroll of $1,533,320.

A total of 24,577 students, 90 per cent of whom graduated from Wisconsin high schools.

A total of 2,231 good students who this year received legislative scholarships with a value of $462,450.

More than 2,000 state and federal student loans totaling approximately $2 million.

Nearly 10,000 students paying $6 million a year to live in dormitories and eat in college dining rooms.

An estimated 50,000 "customers" by 1970.

Marinette County Man Sentenced 6 Months on Driver's License Count

OSHKOSH — Dominick Appleglise, 23, Athelstane, Marinette County, this morning was sentenced by County Judge James Sitter to six months in the county jail for driving a car after his license had been revoked. Appleglise pleaded guilty to the charge this morning.

He was arrested by state police at U. S. 41 and Cecil Street in Neenah on Sept. 14 and had not appeared in court on the date for which he had been ordered into court.

His license had been revoked for one year on June 30, 1963. It had been revoked in 1960 for 45 days and in 1961 for one year.

1964—A Spectacular Year for United States

BY JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — This should be a year of spectaculars, certainly at home, maybe abroad.

At home — the presidential race, with all that means; abroad — the possibility of a summit conference and a grinding Russian-Chinese break. President Johnson has to achieve in one year what the late President John F. Kennedy had three years to work at: public approval through public exposure; and public approval through public performance. Johnson, in the time left before the campaign, can't match the amount of public exposure Kennedy got in speeches, trips, banquets, and appearances before news and television cameras practically every day.

Working Overtime

But he's working at it, and working overtime, to create a favorable image of himself as a busy-busy president: at the White House, on trips, walks, tours of his ranch and picture posing.

There'll be lots more of this. Johnson is a man in a hurry. Since he is so obviously hurrying to stay in the public eye, coming as he does from the relative obscurity of the vice presidency, a summit conference with Soviet Premier Khrushchev would snatch the world's attention like nothing else.

And, if it turned out half-well, it would snatch the world's approval. That's why such a meeting seems a strong possibility. Meanwhile, talk without performance at home will be an empty achievement, and probably a self-defeating one. Johnson will have to try, and try harder than Kennedy ever did, to get some major legislation through Congress.

He's not as mild as Kennedy and for that reason is apt to get into some harrowing disputes with congressional leaders, an embroilment Kennedy always avoided.

Kennedy's technique, however, was not very productive in getting Congress to do what he wanted. A different, harsher technique might be more effective.

Yet, Johnson stands a chance of hurting himself if he gets too rough. He doesn't have Kennedy's ease or grace. A fight creates enemies and gives the impression of a man in trouble.

Kennedy made an effort to appear both calm and in full control, even when Congress frustrated and ignored him. But the Kennedy technique of no fights with Congress was simply a repetition of President Eisenhower's technique.

The result was 10 years of placidity in relations between the White House and Congress. There hasn't been a good brawl since the days of President Truman.

But all this is only half the picture of 1964.

The Republicans' presidential hopefuls will have a double chore, too: knocking one another out of the race while trying to scuttle Johnson.

Kennedy, after three years of building public confidence in his leadership, could have relaxed a bit under attack until the Republicans had picked their candidate and the race was under way.

Johnson can enjoy no such luxury. Besides, it's probably not in his nature to grin and bear it. He has a struggle every inch of the way to election day.

Since he's not a man who takes criticism lightly, what's ahead for him is enough to heat up any politician. He not only has to make a record for himself but then defend it and defend Kennedy's record as a Democratic leader, too.

The fact that Kennedy was so obviously well-liked might have

Cubans Pressured to Deposit in Savings

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "Voluntary savings" take 20 million pesos monthly from Cuban pay checks, the anti-Castro Revolutionary Workers Federation said today.

The exile organization said pressure is put on workers to make ample deposits in the government savings system. It quoted a recently arrived refugee, Arnaldo Machado, as saying there is so much red tape that workers can't withdraw deposits.

Average deposits by 2 million workers, the report said, are 10 pesos monthly. A peso is officially pegged at $1.

taken some of the spirit, and much of the fight, out of his Republican opponents. But the brand-new Johnson is fresh meat for them.

This could well be the roughest and most unpleasant presidential race since Truman beat New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in 1948.

But Johnson has one enormous advantage over the Republicans: As president he can stay in focus every day.

Thursday, January 2, 1964 Appleton Post-Crescent 88

Johnson Signs $817 Million Projects Bill

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson has signed a bill authorizing future work on water projects to cost nearly $817 million.

The new law increases authorizations for 10 river basins and also authorizes five new projects.

Basin authorizations, totaling $600 million, are sufficient to permit work to continue on individual projects within the basins for two years. In some of the river basins, notably the Ohio and Arkansas, work had been threatened by shutdowns for lack of authority to spend appropriated funds.

Basin authorization increases provided by the bill include: Arkansas River, $157 million; Missouri River $96 million; Ohio River $150 million; Upper Mississippi River $11 million.

Fox Cities Students Earn College Honors

Jens Lorenz Named To Engineering Group at Tulane

Jens Lorenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Lorenz, 106 Cherry Court, Appleton, has been elected to Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternity at Tulane University, New Orleans, La., where he is a senior in civil engineering. Requirements for election include high scholarship and exemplary character. Lorenz has a graduate fellowship from Princeton and plans to work toward a master's degree there after graduating from Tulane.

Miss Peggy J. Frank, 245 S. Joseph, Kimberly, has been awarded High Honors in the Major for her superior work in the University of Wisconsin Department of English. High honors may be granted to a student who has an overall grade point average of 3.5 out of a perfect 4.0 and who, in addition to meeting the requirements of honors in the major, has written a thesis of distinction.

Miss Nenah E. Fry, an alumna of Lawrence College and a former instructor of history there, will play the bass viol in the Wilson College orchestra at a concert Jan. 12 on the Chambersburg, Pa., campus. Miss Fry, now assistant professor of history at Wilson, was a history instructor at Lawrence from 1959 to 1961.

Nancy Franck, 124 E. Byrd Ave., Appleton, teamed with Dwight Bastian, 914 Grignon St., Kaukauna, to win three of five rounds of debate for Carroll College, Waukesha, in a tournament at Bradley University, Peoria, Ill. Bastian was rated excellent in extemporaneous speaking, and Miss Franck was rated excellent in debate in the same tournament. The team won two of five rounds at Iowa and Bastian ranked third among 20 orators in that tournament.

Three Fox Cities students played with the Carroll College concert band in its annual Christmas concert. They were Carol Tipler, 576 Grove St., Neenah, clarinet; Margaret Van Horn, 827 E. Washington St., Appleton, oboe, and Dwight Bastian, 914 Grignon St., Kaukauna, in the cornets and trumpets section.

Rock County Is Looking at Home Heating Practices

BELOIT (AP)—A John Doe investigation has been started into practices in the home heating industry. Rock County Dist. Atty. William F. Donovan said Monday.

Donovan said he had asked the probe last Friday and the first six witnesses were scheduled to be questioned Jan. 3 before County Judge Mark Farum, who is presiding over the inquiry.

Donovan said about 25 complaints have been received in the last month and apparently were all related to one company.

They involved contracts for furnace repairs, he said, and recommendations that new furnaces be installed.

Marquette Tuition Rates Up Again

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Marquette University announced Monday a second $75 increase in basic tuition rates in as many years, boosting the fee to $550 a semester, effective next Sept. 1. Medical School tuition will go up $250 to $1,500 a year for entering freshmen while medical students currently enrolled will pay $1,400 until graduated.

Lawrence Says
High Resolves
Are Erased by Whims of Life
Legacy of Human Gospel Left for

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
WASHINGTON — This is the season of New Year's resolutions. Many a high resolve, however, is made only to be brushed aside later by the whims of life. The perennial reminders nevertheless serve their purpose, if merely to awaken memories of men who have left a legacy of human gospel, for the guidance of generations to come.

The name of William G. Farrow, of Darlington, S. C., probably means nothing to the American people today. No monuments have been erected in his memory. No words of his pen are proclaimed in the schools. For he was neither poet nor scholar, but just a lieutenant in the U. S. Air Corps who, at the age of 23, gave his life for his country. He flew in the famous Doolittle raid on Tokyo in April 1942, but his plane crashed afterwards in Japanese-occupied territory in China. He was executed by the Japanese in 1943.

While preparing to go into aviation in 1940, Lieutenant Farrow had written a "memorandum," a copy of which this correspondent obtained from one of his friends just after the Tokyo raid occurred. It was presented in these dispatches on Oct. 22, 1942, and was reprinted at the time in leaflet form by a number of individuals and institutions. In these days of annual resolution-making, it deserves a wider reading. For, as Longfellow once wrote, "The thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

Lieutenant Farrow's "memorandum," entitled "My Future," is as follows:
Daily Conduct
"The time has come to decide what rules I am going to set myself for daily conduct. My aim is decided—I am going into some branch of aviation. I have only to apply myself daily toward this end to achieve it."
"First I must enumerate my weaknesses and seek to eliminate them. Then I must seek to develop the qualities I need for this type of work. It's going to be hard, but it's the only way. Work with a purpose is the only practical means of achieving an end."
"First, what are my weaknesses?"
"1—Lack of thoroughness and application."
"2—Lack of curiosity."
"3—Softness in driving myself."
"4—Lack of constant diligence."
"5—Lack of seriousness of purpose—sober thought."
"6—Scatterbrained dashing here and there and not getting anything done—spur-of-the-moment stuff."
"7—Letting situations confuse the truth in my mind."
"8—Lack of self-confidence."
"9—Letting people influence my decisions too much. I must weigh my decisions—then act."
"10—Too much frivolity—not enough serious thought."
"11—Lack of clear-cut, decisive thinking."
"Second, what must I do to develop myself?"
"1—Stay in glowing health—

Rip Van Winkle Couldn't Sleep with Nagging Backache
Now! You can get the fast relief you need from nagging backache, headache and muscular aches and pains that often cause restless nights and miserable tired-out feelings. "2—Search out current, past and future topics on aviation."
"3—Work hard on each day's lessons—shoot for an 'A'."
"4—Stay close to God—do His will and commandments. He is my friend and protector. Believe in Him—trust in His ways—not in my own confused understanding of the universe."
"5—Do not waste energy or time in fruitless pursuits—learn, as I do my arm. It was given to me by the Creator to use as I success."

to the fullest living. Order my life—in order, there is achievement; in aimlessness, there is retrogression.
"6—Fear nothing—be it insanity, sickness, failure—always be upright—look the world in the eye."
"7—Keep my mind always clean—allow no evil thoughts to destroy me. My mind is my work!"
"8—Concentrate! Choose the task to me done, and do it to the best of my energy and ability."
"9—Fear not for the future—build on each day as though the future for me is a certainty. If I die tomorrow, that is too bad, but I will have done today's work!"
"10—Never be discouraged by failure into over anything! Turn failure into success."

Penniless in Auto at Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Louis Finkelstein—"Louie the Dip"—sued his career. He slowed down about 10 years ago when arthritis stiffened his nimble fingers. In 1959, he applied for re-

Police Inspector Michael J. Blackwell said Finkelstein must have "stolen thousands of dollars in his lifetime, but he died penniless."

His body was found in his automobile Wednesday on Cleveland's east side. Doctors said he died of a heart attack years in prisons as the result of 20 sentences.

Man Gets Probation On Morals Charge

CHILTON — George Gerard, 66, 1003 Draper St., Kaukauna, was placed on one year's probation to the Wisconsin Department of Public Welfare Monday after pleading no contest to a charge of taking indecent liberties with a minor.

Gerard was charged Sept. 16 in the Town of Harrison. He appeared before Calumet County Judge D. H. Sebor Oct. 16 and was ordered committed to Centennial State Hospital for 60 days for a pre-sentence examination. In addition to the probation, Gerard's driving license was revoked for one year.

AVS Offers Five New Trade Courses

Welding, Engines, Transmissions, Electronics, Transit to be Taught

Five new trades and industry courses will be offered for the first time during the second semester by the Appleton Vocational and Adult School.

The courses will be in welding, small engines, industrial electronics, transit and automatic transmission. All except the small engines course will start next week.

Evening registration for second semester adult courses will be from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Thursday. Classes will begin Monday, Jan. 6.

The school will begin three sections of the course in welding on Jan. 6, with the classes meeting from 7 to 9 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays or Wednesdays. Instruction will be provided in acetylene and arc welding for those who wish to learn welding as a trade or to improve their ability for their present employment. Basic fundamental instruction on equipment, set up, simple welding, position welding, brazing and cast iron welding will make up the 20-hour course.

Small Engines

A short unit course on small engines will begin March 17, with classes meeting from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesdays. The course will provide instruction on general theories of operation, including compression, carburetion and ignition. It will cover adjustments, servicing and simple repair for homeowners with power driven lawn mowers and cultivators or other equipment using small engines.

The course in industrial electronics will be provided for persons engaged in electrical and electronic work. Those understanding basic theory in direct current and alternating current and some fundamentals of basic electronics are eligible to participate. Classes will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. Mondays, starting Jan. 6.

The course will cover thyatron characteristic, application of catrable reactors, application of magnetic amplifiers and use of speaking transformers. It will emphasize fundamental principles and laboratory techniques needed to prove certain applications.

Transit Course

The course in transit is intended for tradesmen in carpentry, plumbing, masonry and steel erection or contractors who are required to run grade levels or plot building sites or construction areas.

The course is "designed to create an understanding of the principles upon which transit and level are based, and will enable the construction worker to become skilled in the manipulation of these instruments. Classes will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesdays, starting Jan. 8.

The course in automatic transmissions is designed for garage mechanics who wish to further their training in the servicing of automatic transmissions. It will emphasize basic theory to the degree that the mechanic will be able to understand the basic operation of each type necessary in the repair and service of automatic transmissions. Classes will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesdays, starting Jan. 8.

Even Kennedy Doodles Go Into Library

BY MARTHA COLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Every paper—"even the doodles"—from John F. Kennedy's political life as senator and President has been saved, his secretary for a decade said today.

"I never threw anything away," Mrs. Evelyn Lincoln said in an interview.

When she gets through sorting the papers, they're going to the planned $6-million John F. Kennedy Memorial Library to be built at Harvard University.

Public Property

Later, the building will be turned over to the U.S. government as public property, to be administered by the National Archives.

The Kennedy family is following a recent custom in doing this. It began with the papers of Herbert Hoover and was continued with the files of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman and Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Traditionally, presidential papers are considered the personal property of each individual president.

Thus some presidential papers have been scattered, lost or destroyed.

Kennedy Library

In the Kennedy library, too, are going gifts and mementoes of his three years in the White House — including his rocking chair.

Mrs. Lincoln had no idea how many items will go into the Kennedy library — "hundreds, thousands," she said.

She had no idea how long it would take her to sort everything out—a job she's doing alone.

"It's a labor of love," she said.

Accused Kidnaper Says He Went Along To See No One Hurt

LOS ANGELES (AP)—John Irwin, one of three men accused of kidnaping Frank Sinatra Jr., says he "went along to make sure no one got hurt."

Irwin, 42, talked with news-men briefly after a federal judge reduced his bail from $50,000 to $30,000.

He said he was innocent of any part in the kidnaping of young Sinatra at Lake Tahoe.

The young singer was kidnaped from a Stateline, Calif., motel Dec. 8. Three days later he was returned to his parents in Los Angeles for a $240,000 ransom.

Irwin said he spent only about $31 of the $48,000 in ransom money he received.

Today is Thursday, Jan. 2, the 2nd day of 1964. There are 364 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1842, the first wire suspension bridge in the United States to be used for general traffic was opened over the Schuylkill River at Fairmount, Pa. Charles Eliot built the 358-foot bridge at a cost of $35,000.

On this date: In 1863, the Civil War Battle of Mufreesboro was fought in Tennessee.

In 1935, Bruno Richard Hauptmann went on trial at Flemington, N.J., for the 1932 kidnap-murder of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr.

In 1942, the Declaration of the United Nations was signed in Washington with all 26 nations at war with one or more of the Axis powers pledging not to make a separate armistice or peace.

Ten years ago — The United States invited Russia to provide details on how it wished to discuss President Eisenhower's proposals for an international atomic pool.

Five years ago — The Soviet Union announced the launching of a cosmic rocket toward the moon.

One year ago—Two of Hollywood personalities, Dick Powell and Jack Carson, died of cancer.

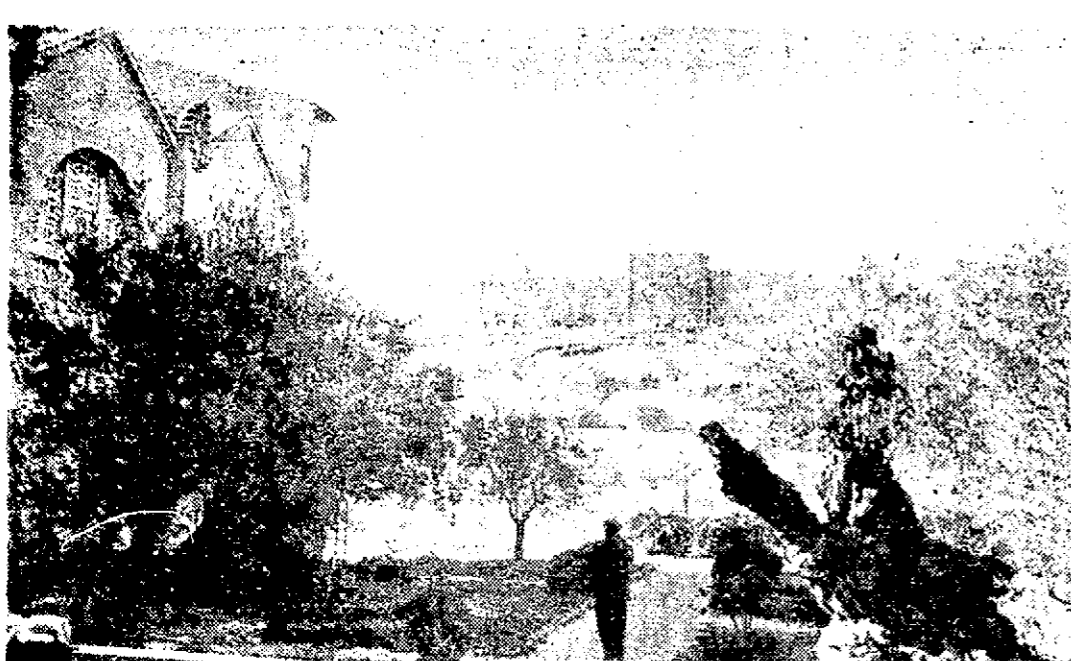

Please Accept Our Thanks!

This is to extend a heartfelt thank-you to the clubs, organizations, groups and individuals who remembered us—not only during the holiday season but the entire year of 1963, as well!

Brief, but Timeless

Pope to Visit Landmarks of Jesus' Short Earth History

BY GEORGE W. CORNELL

BETHLEHEM, Jordan (AP)—A little town in a valley, a lake, a roadside church, a mountain of mystery—these are among the places which Pope Paul will visit on his journey to the Holy Land starting Saturday.

They are landmarks of a brief but timeless interval in history—the days of Jesus of Nazareth on earth.

His words and deeds have towered across the centuries and the continents, yet they originated in particular moments, in particular places, here in an area hardly bigger than Vermont.

The Pope, by coming to this cradle of Judeo-Christianity, dramatizes the mutual roots of all those whose faith stemmed from this soil.

In a sense his itinerary was mapped long ago—but the migratory life of a hill-country Jew, Jesus, the Lord of Christians of every name and nation.

However, in part, Pope Paul is to cover that ground in reverse, the early locales last, and the final places first.

Yet each place, in whatever order visited, carries an imperishable imprint.

Record Preserved
Scripture preserves the record that enshrines them all.

Just what happened at these varied sites where the Pope of Rome comes to meditate, recollect, and pray for unity and peace among men?

Most familiar is the occurrence at this ancient city of David, Bethlehem, perched on a red limestone plateau. The massive, old Church of the Nativity stands over the cave where Jesus supposedly was born.

Here, on Monday, the last day of his visit, the Pope is expected to kneel in obeisance—where other shepherds knelt long ago.

Here, too, as recounted in Matthew, the magi, the scholars from the east, came by the guidance of a star and worshiped and here, soldiers of the suspicious Herod the Great slaughtered the children, as Mary and Joseph fled with Jesus.

Here, as told in Luke 2, a heavenly choir burst into song above the shepherds' field that spreads below the town. "For to you is born this day in the City of David a Savior, Who is Christ the Lord."

The affair had its beginning, however, in the rustic little village of Nazareth, set on a hillside in Galilee, 70 miles to the north.

Sunday Pope Paul is to motor northward across the border into Israel, and to Nazareth. There, he worships at the Church of the Annunciation. Luke 1 tells of that event:

Mary, a young peasant girl espoused to a carpenter, Joseph, underwent a shocking experience—an angelic visitation. "Hail, O Favored One, the Lord is with you."

Tradition says she was at a well at the time, fetching water. She was stricken with fear, but the shimmering archangel said:

"Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus—of His Kingdom there will be no end."

Baffled and frightened, she asked, "How can this be since I have no husband?"

"The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the Child to be born will be called Holy, the Son of God."

Carpenter's Home
Pope Paul may also stop in Nazareth at the Church of St. Joseph, which stands over a rock-hewn grotto, believed to be where the carpenter's family lived, and where Jesus grew up, working wood and tending flocks.

Thus He was called the Nazarene.

Around the village are other reminders of His life, including "The Precipice," the high, sheer bluff from which resentful townspeople sought to hurl Him when He began His ministry, as related in Luke 4:29.

From Nazareth, the Pope takes the road to Tiberias, stopping at the Mount of Beatitudes, which marks the traditional site by the Sea of Galilee where Jesus delivered the Sermon on the Mount.

The fullest accounts are in the 5th, 6th and 7th chapters of Matthew, beginning: "Seeing the crowds He went up on the mountain and sat down . . . and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit . . . those who mourn . . . the meek . . . those who hunger and thirst for righteousness . . . the merciful . . . the pure in heart . . . the peace-makers . . . those who are persecuted for righteous n e s s sake . . ."

And he went on, "Forgive and you shall be forgiven. . ."

"Judge not, that you be not judged. . ."

The Pope also will visit the small lakeside Church of the "Primate of Petrus," recalling the incident, of Matthew 16:15-19 when the Apostle Peter avowed belief in Jesus as "The Christ, the Son of the Living God."

And Jesus answered him:

"And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock, I will build my church, and the powers of death shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. . ."

This passage is a major basis for the Roman Catholic belief that the chief apostle and his successors—as the Popes are regarded—have ruling authority in the church.

Mystical Sites

One of the more mystical sites on the Pope's Galilean tour is Mt. Tabor. It rises stark, immense and brooding from a level el plain, a mist often hanging around its rounded dome. To it Jesus took his three closest most trusted followers, Peter, James and John, and there Jesus assumed a supernatural transformation before their eyes.

Matthew 17, Mark 9 and Luke 9 recount the episode.

Leaving Galilee, the Pope drives southward to New Jerusalem, in Israel, where he is scheduled to visit the house where Jesus supposedly ate his last supper with his disciples on the night of his arrest.

It was a poignant, compelling meal, in an upper room. Matthew 26, Mark 14, Luke 22 and John 13 describe it. At one point, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you, one of you will betray me."

The twelve began asking, one after another, "Is it I?" He said sorrowfully, "It is one . . . who is dipping bread in the same dish with me." Judas Iscariot, drawing back asked, "It is I, Master?"

"You have said so." After Judas left, Jesus took bread, blessed it, broke it and passed it to those around him, "Take; Eat; This is my body."

And he blessed the cup, and passed it, saying, "Drink of it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

That memorable meal today still is the central feature of Christian worship. Celebrated by early Christians and by believers ever since, it is variously called the Eucharist, the Mass, or simply the Lord's Supper, a source of abundant grace to uncounted millions.

Pope Paul also is expected to visit the nearby Church of Dormition, venerated by tradition as the place where Mary passed from earthly life. Roman Catholicism teaches that she assumed at once her heavenly form and ascended bodily into heaven.

Last Stop
That is the last stop on the Pope's swing into Israel Sunday. Tomorrow he retraces Jesus' march to his execution. The way of Sorrows (via Dolorosa) winds through old Jerusalem's age-worn streets from the site of the Roman court where Jesus was condemned to the place of crucifixion.

Matthew 27, Mark 15, Luke 23 and John 18 and 19 tell of that seeming shattering finale to Jesus' work. The Church of the Holy Sepulcher now encloses the traditional place where he died, and the grave from which he rose, triumphant after all.

Pope Paul is to celebrate mass, in devotion to him, there on that ground where gloom descended, only to spring up in unconquerable joy.

Parked Car Damaged By Hit and Run Driver

WAUPACA—Wayne J. Clemens, 23, Pipestone, told county police his car was damaged by a hit and run driver sometime Thursday while it was parked at Kings Bar, Town of Farmington. He estimated damages at $150.

A car driven by Harold E. Talbot, 28, Shiller Park, Ill., was damaged about 5 p.m. Friday on County Trunk F, one-fourth mile east of Weyauwega, when it skidded off the road and hit a mail box. Damages to the car were estimated at $200.

State Loses Milk Title

New Mexico Cow Tops Old National, Wisconsin Records

ARREY, N. M. (AP) Milk producers in Wisconsin have received what must be to them shocking news—a milking record set by a cow from that dairy state has been broken.

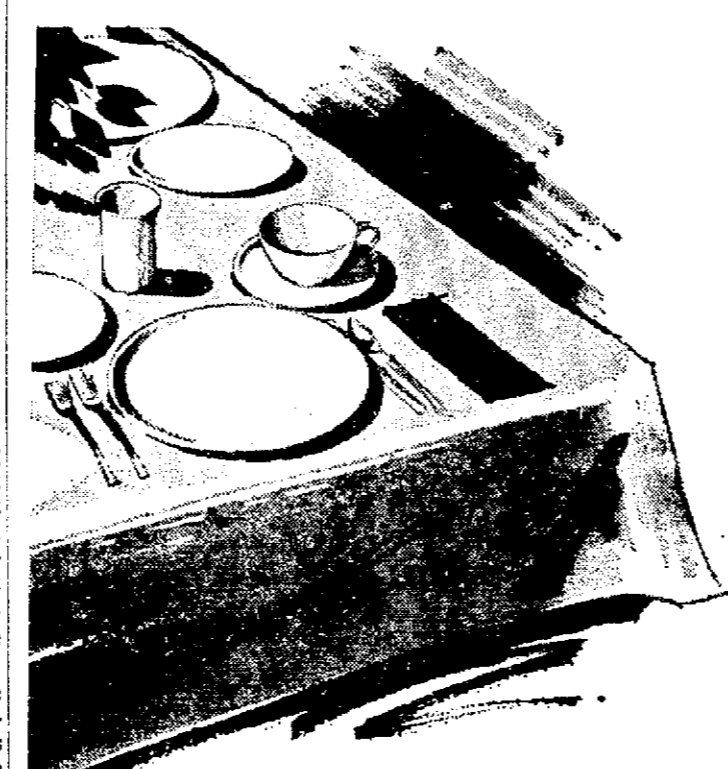

And what must be equally disturbing to Wisconsin dairymen is the fact that the record was broken by a New Mexico cow, in a state better noted for oil wells and Indians.

The new national champion milk producer among 2 year olds is Prince's Kubilee. For statistic keepers, this prize cow produced 20,524.8 pounds of milk and 797.36 pounds of butterfat in 365 days on twice a day milking by machine. The old record was 19,432 pounds of milk set by a Wisconsin cow, Colby's Glennie in 1958. Prince Kubilee is one of the 2,900 Guernsey cows on the Price-Black Farms near Arrey. But there is a redeeming side to this tale. Prince's Kubilee's relations, from the male side, traces to Chips Prince owned by the American Breeder Service of Madison, Wis.

Kennedy Death Threat To Security of Family

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — As the new year dawns, the blackboard in my daughter's room looks strangely bare.
It hangs on a wall opposite her bed, and Tracy Ann uses the blackboard as a kind of school away from school. As do many 10-year-olds, she loves to play teacher herself—and the blackboard lends the game the semblance of reality.
One day last November, just before school let out, she and her classmates learned that the President of the United States had been shot.
Tracy Ann hurried home to tell her mother, and they switched on the television set. Her daughter wept uncontrollably for nearly an hour.
In the crowded days that followed so swiftly she could not get the event out of her mind any more than grownups could. Sometime during those four tragic days she went alone to her blackboard, picked up a piece of chalk and neatly printed this bulletin:

"In history: John F. Kennedy died Friday, Nov. 22, 1963. Flags to fly at half staff for 30 days in mourning."

A relationship is sometimes best defined by its loss. So only through the death of President Kennedy did the nation come to realize how manifold a meaning he had.
He had become during his short term in authority a symbol of many things. He was a symbol of a dutiful son, a symbol of conscientious leadership.

light - heartedly exemplifying that true mark of the champion — "grace under pressure"—and he was a symbol of proud and happy parenthood.
Probably because of the prevalence of television, the tragedy affected children almost as much as it did adults. It took away their innocence of death. Burial of John F. Kennedy raised disturbing issues in the heart of my daughter, who has never seen a dead person and to whom until then death was largely a matter of hearsay.

Children Affected
She asked me long and searching questions about mortality and immortality, some of which I found difficult to answer.

"After they covered President Kennedy with earth and flowers," she asked, "did everybody just go away and leave him there all by himself?"
To her it seemed almost like an act of treason.
In the days that followed she was extraordinarily kind and thoughtful to both her mother and me. Other parents I have talked to also have reported improved conduct in their children.

Loss of Leader
From this I gather that to children the message of President Kennedy's death spelled less the loss of a national leader than a breach in the security of the family, the only certainty children really know. It made millions of people fully aware of how bewilderingly dependent they are on family ties they usually take for granted, and this realization is the only good ing on it.

I can see that came from the whole sorry happening.
Sometime after Christmas, Tracy Ann went to the blackboard and erased the lettering, and since then has written nothing on it.

First Coffee Trees
It was in Costa Rica that coffee was first planted in Central America.

Search Abandoned for Spanish Freighter
MADRID, Spain (AP)—Officials have given up the 10,146-ton Spanish freighter Castillo de Montjuich and its crew of 37 for lost. The Ministry of Marine search it had abandoned the search for the ship, 10 days overdue on a trip from Boston with general cargo.
